...ACCOUNTING FOR PRESENTMENTS, AT OCTOBER SPECIAL SESSIONS, 1820.

THE GRAND JURY, at last Assizes, having ordered that a Special Sessions should be held at the County Court-House, on Wednesday, the 25th of October, 1820, for the purpose of accounting for such Presentments as were not finished previous to Summer Assizes, 1820.

Therefore, all Persons intending to account for Presentments at said Sessions, must cause a Notice of their intention of accounting, to be posted at the usual place for posting Notices in the Parish, in which the Work, proposed to be accounted for, is situated, between the hours of Nine and Twelve o'Clock in the forenoon, on Saturday, the 14th of October next;—and a similar Notice must be lodged in the Office of the Grand Jury Secretary, No. 60, Upper George's-Street, on or before that day.—The persons posting or lodging the Notices as aforesaid, must attend the Sessions at the County-Court-House, on Wednesday the 25th October, to prove having done so—and where also the Overseer who is to swear to the expenditure of the money, is to attend on the same day with his Accounting Affidavit drawn up, in order to be sworn in open Court by the Magistrates, who shall preside at said Special Sessions.

☞ Proper Forms of Notices for accounting for Presentments—and the late Road Act, may be had at the Shop of GEORGE M'KERN, County-Printer, 25, George's-street.

Grand-Jury Secretary's Office, Limerick, 27th September, 1820.

NOT TO BE EQUALLED IN THE WORLD!!

TO ARRIVE

IN THIS CITY ON THURSDAY NIGHT,

AND TO BE SEEN

At Thomas-Street, for a short time only.

By permission of J. GABBETT, Esq. Mayor, sanctioned and patronised by the Royal Family,

Three of the greatest Natural Curiosities

IN THE WORLD!!!

THE CELEBRATED GIANTESS,

MRS. COOK,

The same young Lady who had the Honour of being exhibited at the Earl of Yarmouth's Seymour-Place, Mayfair, London, on the 15th April, 1818, when his present Majesty, the Duke and Duchess of York, Duke and Duchess of Cumberland, and other Branches of the Royal Family, together with One Hundred of the Principal Nobility, attended on the occasion, who pronounced Her to be the Greatest Living Curiosity the World ever produced.—Mrs. COOK challenges the World for 1000 Guineas to produce her equal.

THIS BRITISH PHENOMENON is a striking instance of the Power of Nature, unassisted by Art; for the natural beauties possessed by this young Lady, have proved a Magnet of irresistible Attraction to a wondering World.

This INCOMPARABLE GIANTESS was born at Merriott, in the County of Somerset, and only completed her NINETEENTH YEAR on the first of October, 1818. She stands near SEVEN FEET HIGH, is remarkably stout and well proportioned, possesses a pleasing and interesting countenance, and is allowed by all visitors to be the Tallest, Largest, and Strongest Woman in the World.

LIKEWISE THE

IRISH GIANT,

MR. HAMILTON,

Is a native of this country, and Nephew of the celebrated Giant O'Brien; he is only Twenty Years of Age, stands nearly EIGHT FEET HIGH—is remarkably active, and possesses more strength than any man in the world, and he is capable of carrying upwards of Half a Ton Weight.

TO BE SEEN ALSO,

THE YORKSHIRE LITTLE MAN,

Master JOSEPH LEE, is in the Seventeenth Year of his Age, and stands only THIRTY INCHES HIGH, who is only twenty-two pounds weight, is remarkably well proportioned, and is allowed to be the smallest and shortest man in the world. This young Gentleman is a native of Fairburn, near Ferrybridge, in Yorkshire.

Admittance—Ladies and Gentlemen, 10d.—Children and Servants, 5d.
