to consider this event as the termin-intercourse, from which, for the period years, I have derived so much gratification. I should contemplate from amongst you as a circumstance calamitous nature.

The intimate acquaintance I ha-from my long residence in the Diocese with its numerous Clergy, and the which has been afforded me of observ-and assiduity with which they dis-important trust confided to them, hain my mind sentiments of respect and which I feel myself incompetent to adequate idea.

It, during the period that I have p-the Clergy of the Diocese of Limerick has accrued to the cause of Relig-improvement has taken place in the of the Diocese, I am conscious that results should be attributed (under to the judicious regulations which Metropolitan introduced, and to the defor the welfare of the Establishment Flocks committed to their care, influenced those Ministers of the Chur-for whose direction they were inter-myself I claim no merit, but that of ha-voured to give efficiency to measure value and importance to the best Religion I was fully sensible.

It affords me heart-felt pleasure you consider me to have been in-instrumental in promoting the welnumerous Charitable Institutions of the Diocese. It has fallen to my lot period of deep and unparalleled disnever can reflect upon the generous which the Clergy have displayed in be-suffering fellow-creatures, of every de-without blessing that God who has ma-instruments of good in his hands!

The opinion which you have kind-of the manner in which I conducted official intercourse with you, has been fying to me, and I shall always re-circumstance, which I may content comfort and satisfaction.

And now, my dear and Reverend must perform the painful task of farewell. I shall not endeavour to I feel upon this occasion, but with the prayers for the welfare (temporal both of yourselves and of the Flocks your care, I remain,

Your sincerely affectionate
