THOMAS LIMERICK, Chairman.

The Lord Bishop having left the Chair, and the Mayor being called upon,

It was unanimously resolved—That the warmest thanks of this Meeting be returned to the Lord Bishop of Limerick, for his dignified conduct in the Chair, and for the readiness where with he honoured this Institution by becoming President thereto.

CHRISTOPHER MARRETT, Chairman.

Mr. Cleland has given 5s. 6d. to the Treasurer of the House of Industry, a fine received by him for a breach of contract.

The Steward of the Beneficence Association acknowledges the receipt of sixteen quarts of milk from Mrs. E. Sagers.

A distressed gentleman, who is reduced to the greatest distress, craves the assistance of the charitable and humane, to enable her to get some pecuniary assistance so as to forward her to her friends—the particulars of her situation will be informed by Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Gubbett, Tontine-Buildings, Mrs. Jameson, or Mrs. Walsh.

BIRTHS—On Thursday, at his house, Tontine Buildings, the Lady of Robert George Maunsell, Esq. of a daughter—
 At Wareley Park, Huntingdonshire, the Lady of the Hon.
 Orlando Bridgeman, of a son—At Clifton, the Lady of Major-General Macleod, of a daughter—At her father's house (the Marquis of Cholmondeley) in Piccadilly, Lady Catherine Seymour, of a son and heir—In Edinburgh, Lady Anne Campbell, of a daughter—At Hill End, Greenock, the Lady of Captain Berwick, 75th Highlanders, quartered on the garrison, of a son—At Birmingham, the Lady of Major-General, 6th Dragoon Guards, of a son and heir—
 The Lady of Sir John Lubbock, Bart. of a son.

MARRIAGES—In Clontarf, Captain Thomas Cox, 30th Regiment of Foot, to Catherine, eldest daughter of William Hamilton, Esq. M. D.—In London, John Nibbit, Esq. of the 7th Dragoon Guards, to Mrs. Scholes, of Jersey—At Epsom, Surrey, Captain Robert Yates, Royal Navy, to Mary Jane, daughter of Major-General N. Graham, Royal Artillery—At Monaghan, Warwickshire, Miss P. Snow, Royal Navy, to Susannah, youngest daughter of the late Colonel Fitzherbert, 9th Regiment—At Moscow, in the West Indies, Lieut. George Brooke, Royal Brigade, to Miss Catherine Cochran, niece of Doctor Cochran, late President of the Medical Board, Calcutta—At Ballyshannon, Co. Clare, Mr. John O'Keefe, of Hill-grove, Ennis, to the daughter of Mr. John MacMahon, of the same place, Co. Wicklow, Miss M. Ledwith, Esq. of Greenhall, to Margaret, third daughter of the late James Young, Esq. of Colboy, in same County—In Sarway, Miss Young, Esq. of Dublin, to Mary, eldest daughter of P. Ferral, Esq. of Galway—At Newcastle, Scotland, Captain Fyfe, Royal Navy, to Miss Anne Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late David Hunt, Esq. of Blackburn—On Monday, in London, James Brown, Esq. M. P. Co. Mayo, eldest son of the Right Hon.
 Douglas Brown, to Elizabeth, third daughter of John Wells, Esq. M. P. Maidstone.

DEATHS—On Monday last, at his seat, Silver-Hills, King's County, much and deservedly regretted, Charles Rolleston, Esq.—At Mountford Lodge, near Waterbury, in the 10th year of his age, Edward, sixth son of William O'Brien, Esq.—John Perry, Esq. of Newcastle, Co. Tipperary—In Cork, Lady Park, wife of Sir Verand Park, Bart. one of the Aldermen of the City—At Clonsilla, County Wick, the Rev. Dr. Lane,

 Admiral Sir Thomas Louis, Bart.—Mary Sophia, daughter of Lieut. Colonel Stephenson, of Mayfair—Suddenly, in London, Major Seymour, late 56th Regiment—In Dundee, aged 85, Miss Susanna Lyon, daughter of the late William Lyon, Esq. Advocate—At Roscrea, aged 69 years, Stephen Egau, Esq. for many years a respectable Brewer of that town. His death was perfectly sudden, and occurred while conversing on some domestic business. It would, perhaps, be difficult to find a man so very generally known, more universally beloved. He was honest and charitable; the most kind and considerate husband; the most truly affectionate parent; and he has left a disconsolate widow and numerous family to deplore so severe and heavy a loss—At Oatnill, Co. Carab, Fanny, aged 19, and Emily, aged 22, daughters of the late Rev. W. Anderson.

TO THE MURDER OF THE LATE ARUNDELL HILL, Esq.

(Whose death we stated in our last.)
 The eulogium of a devoted friend is scarcely necessary determined to sell at such low prices as shall make it interest of all their friends to purchase at their House; they have very great satisfaction in having proved, thro' the past trying season of scarcity of money, the advantage, both to their friends and themselves, of distinguishing their Credit Trade, and selling low for CASH.

They give liberal encouragement to Wholesale Dealers
 N. B.—They daily expect a Case of Coloured and B Bombazines, from England, of the best qualities; and further Supply of Welch Flannels.
