

Yesterday, the Right Worshipful the Mayor inspected, at Bank-place, the Fire Engines of the Royal Exchange Insurance Company, Mr. J. Morgan, Agent; Atlas, Mr. J. Carroll; Sun, Mr. E. Bernard; and that of St. John's Parish. They proved fully adequate to their intended purpose. This is the first instance of the kind in this City, and afforded much gratification to the people. It is the intention of his Worship to inspect the other Engines in the ensuing week.

Rewards, amounting to £100, have already been subscribed, for the apprehension and conviction of the ruffians who attacked the poor prisoner, at a gentleman's house, near Askeaton, or attempting to serve a law process, as stated in our last. The unfortunate man is not yet out of danger. We understand that a representation of this most disgraceful outrage has been made to Government, who, it is hoped, will issue a proclamation for the detection of the perpetrators.
