

to vote an Address to Sovereign, expressive of loyalty to his Person and of Baggot-Street, Dublin, of the Paving Board. of Divinity has been upon the Hon. and Rev.
second son of the Right the answer of Dr. Kyle, age, Dublin, in reply to ompanied the freedom of of your which your ancient ferred on me, by enrolling my of this Metropolis, request you acknowledgments. I deeply which the Government of the place in my hands, and it shall not to discredit so honorable a equite I must deem myself, present situation, to the general its Constitutional Government ove all to its Religion—(for the h in its established form, I can reality was originally founded.) reason that my best exertions my zeal less ardent, it would which I have had before me—ect of difficulties, in the con-supported in every right mea-Government of the University.

on. I beg leave to express my e which you add to the honour and gratifying manner of his orning, Joseph D. Dal.

Excise, assisted by a par-Police under Lieutenant e lands of Ballinacabel, and succeeded in destroy-malt in process, together alt, which he lodged in his arly an entire Cargo of discovered in a Cave at Miltown Malbay, by the ed by Major Warburton's attention of the public to ph on the Agricultural which will be found in aged in criminal trials on ord business on Friday; ten o'clock on Monday.

next.)
Gentleman of this City, re the Mayor for refusing Gold seven shilling piece, lm. The prosecution was e person having yielded, the Act of Parliament ined a countryman, for twice in the market, one the Serjeant at Mace in relief of distressed rooms directions.

their faces blackened, and robbing it of fire-arms; Patrick Harley and Patrick Adams, for a like offence in the house of Thomas Hayes; Luke Barry, Cornelius De Aber, John Molloy, Thomas Barry, and James Moore, for entering the house of James Delmage, Esq. and robbing it of two guns—To the City jail, by the Mayor, Patrick Kerrigan, for robbery; D. Keefe, for combination; Simon Allen, for rape.

GRAYS—At Morrisstown Latio, the Lady of Alexander Mansfield, Esq. of a son—At Kircubright, the Lady of Captain Robert Muter, 7th Regiment of Foot, of a daughter—At Crugleigh, Co. Clare, the Lady of Thomas Pikington, Esq. of a daughter—In Grosvenor-square, London, the Countess Minter of a son—At Cliphurst, Mrs.
Fookering, of a son—In Bath, the Lady of Captain R. L.
Pitz-Gerald, R. N. of a daughter.

MARRIAGES—In Chelsea, the Rev. Henry Blunt, A. M.
Vicar of Clare, Suffolk, to Julia Anne, daughter of Joseph Miller, of Chelsea, Esq.—Torriano Francis L'Estrange, Esq. late of the Royal Fusiliers, and eldest son of Major General L'Estrange, of Larkfield, Co. Westmeath, to Jane Martha, third daughter of Counsellor Mulock, of Kilmegona, King's County—At Brislington, near Bristol, John Gordon, Esq. eldest son of the Very Rev. the Dean of Lincoln, to Miss Matthews, late of the Theatre Royal, Covent-garden—Robert Welch, jun. of Dublin, Esq. to Margaret, eldest daughter of Richard Hayes, of Mount-lick, Esq. and niece to General Hayes, of the Hon. East India Company's Service—At Paris, Humphrey Bowles, jun. Esq. of the H. P. 22d Light Dragoons, to Miss Eusebe Vincent—In Claydon Church, James Sanderson, Esq. R. N. of Castle-Sanderson, to Silena, fourth daughter of Richard Fox, Esq.
Fox-hall, Co. Longford, and niece to the Earl of Farnham—Samuel Godner, Esq. of Teignmouth, to Miss Selina Brown youngest daughter of Sir William Brown Caye, Bart. of Stretton-le-Field, Derbyshire—James Wilkins, Esq. of Naas, Co. Kildare, to Emily Pettin, youngest daughter of the late Abraham Boston, Esq. of Spring Garden, in same county—Edward Pemberton, Esq. to Charlotte, daughter of Samuel Cox, Esq. Master, English Chancery.

DIED—On the 23d inst. at his seat, Castle Mary, County Cork, Richard Langford, Esq. universally regretted by his highly respectable connections and numerous tenantry. He was Lieut.-Colonel of the City of Cork Militia, and one of his Majesty's Commissioners of Excise. He is succeeded in his estates by his eldest son, Longueville Langford, a youth of only seven years of age—At Southampton, on the 17th instant, Charlotte, daughter of the late, and sister of the present Sir Theophilus Biddulph, Bart. of Birbury Hall, Warwickshire—On Wednesday night, after a short illness, at his house, Thomond-gate, Mr. Mat. Kenny, very deservedly regretted by his numerous family and friends; he was an honest upright man, and most correct and punctual in his dealings—At Spalding, aged 32, the Rev. Maurice Johnson, M. A.—At Cheswardine, Salop, the Rev. William Hammerley, Vicar of that place—At the Cape of Good Hope—Lieut. Mudge, R. N. Agent for Transports—In Queen-street, Dublin, Joseph Ashley, Esq.—At Hill-house, Rothborough, Sir George Ousephorus Paul, Bart.—In Queen-street Westminster, Joseph Hopkins, M. D. In the course of his practice he attended, as accoucheur, nearly 16,000 females—In the 34th year of his age, the Rev. Denis Kelly P. P. of Ruskery, son to Mr. John Kelly, of Doonard, Co.
Roscommon—In Angleson-street, Dublin, Mr. John Fox—In Dublin, in the 81st year of her age, Mrs. Anne Babington rellict of the late Richard Babington, of Boyles Hill, in the Co. Down—Esq.—Doreus, only child of William Allen, Esq. of Fingis—In Carlow, Arthur Wellington Macartney, seventh son of Henry Macartney, Esq.—Suddenly, in her 57th year, the Princess Maria Anne, sister of the King of Saxony—In Dublin, aged 80 years, at the house of his vénérable mother, whom he survived one month, Barry Lawless, Esq. formerly of Stanchill, and of Gerry Wood, in the Co. Dublin—At Hethel, Sir Thomas Reeve, Bart. Deputy Lieutenant and Justice of Peace for the County of Norfolk—In Dublin, Caroline, daughter of Daniel Egan, Esq.—In London, the widow of the late Captain Dolan, 3d Dragoon Guards—James Liddall, Esq. late Veterinary Surgeon, Royal Horse Guards—At Langholm, Robert Ker, Esq. a near relative to the Duke of Roxborough—At Dendergha, the Lady of John Prince Smith, Esq.—At Cuba, William Hutton, M. D. eldest son of William Hutton, Esq. of Belfast—In Dingle, aged 22 years, Frederick Eagar, Esq. youngest son of the late John Eagar, Esq. of Ardaraige, Co. Kerry.

we are not yet a party, and we are placed exactly hold of the situation Trader, and this is direct violation of The address of these crying grievances, is for by an unassisted effort, and we our country, it is not, immediately, and City in Ireland, convened legal Parliament, strong, but respectfull support to expect from the Irish Govern-of which name we wish, as they ought, in The Irish House of Commons is, I understand the repeal of these disabilities, and will its assistance, as being the best means Revenue, and of encouraging the A-Kingdom.—I have the honor to subscribe wishes of my country.

Cork, December 20, 1823.

THEATRE—Our Theatre will be night, when curiosity and taste will to each and novelty. Of Miss Hume's not be either intended or written; because accomplished lady, Fanny has long since Mr. Cobham's talents and versatility, and the approbation of the most enlightened Empire—those of London and Dublin.
Company has been organized by Mr. desirable expense for public gratification doubt, but his exertions will be generous a wealthy and refined community. The Opera of 'Love in a Village' will be the plot, incident, characters and songs valued by any similar work in our indeed, almost pining with expectation as the sweet Rosetta, begins with 'He young desire.' The elegant part of Viosevere and accomplished representation in whom science and urbanity are united.

Market Prices this day—Wheat, 1 stone—Oats, 7th—Barley, 5s.—Flour bag—Oatmeal, 19s 6d per cwt—Pork Park, 41s. per cwt—Beef, 41. per Butter, 84s. 74s. 66s. 54s. 46s.
County Markets, Wednesday—But-Oatmeal, 11s. per cwt.—Flour, 34s.
Wheat, 1s. 31. per stone—Oats, 7 Potatoes 21.—Wool, 24s. per stone—Price of Butter in Cork on Merchants, ..... 80s.—74s.—70s.— Country, ..... 76s.—66s.—54s.

INSOLVENTS' NO-
TAKE NOTICE, that I do in benefit of an Act made in the 53 of his late Majesty, entitled "An A-Insolvent Debtors in Ireland." And of ment made in the 54th year of His A-entitled "An Act to amend an Act made of Parliament for the Relief of Insolland." And also of an Act of Parliamyear of his late Majesty's reign, en-amend an Act of the 53d year of his Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ire-Act of Parliament made in the first year jesty's reign, entitled, "An Act to re-one year the several Acts for the Relief in Ireland;" and that I am ready to examined, touching the justice of my every of my creditors. And that Petition, with a Schedule of my propsaid Acts, which Petition and Schedwith the proper Officer, and will be deration at the County Court, at Rathkenny, on Monday, January 13, being the 13th day of the month, my Creditors.—Dated the 30th day of DAVID
Continued in the Michael Wolfe, John Graham, Al-O'Connor, John Pencock, Wm. Tisd-Co. Francis Arthur and Thomas Mules-Mrs. Meligan and John Dalton, Coun-