By Virtue of his Majesty's Writs of Fieri Facias three Cents to me directed and lived. I will, on WEDNESDAY the first day of November next up and sell by Public Auction

Monday, upwards of 300 men of the Honourable East India Company's Artillery and Infantry, marched from Chatham to Gravesend, under the command of Major Somerville, to embark for India, as also a detachment of the 75th regiment. Last week, detachments of the 24th, 59th and 77th regiments, arrived at Chatham from the Isle of Wight.

Detachments of the 46th, 47th, 65th, and 77th regiments, and 11th and 13th Dragoons, marched to Gravesend last week, to embark for India.

The County Limerick Sessions commenced on Monday and will end this day; the business has not been very considerable.

Monday last, a numerous and respectable Meeting of the Gentlemen residing in Millstreet and its environs, was held agreeably to notice, and a Society formed for relieving the distressed, to be styled the Millstreet Indigent Poor Keepers' Society. After a spirited contribution for present wants, it was agreed that Henry Vallis, Esq. of Drishane Castle, should be appointed President; the Rev. John C. Mongan, Rect., Vice-President; and Robert M. Davis, M. Treasurer. A Committee was then appointed to collect Subscriptions at one Penny a week, and in consequence of the meritorious exertions of the Members who compose it, the list of Subscribers ready contains Three Hundred Names. Millstreet can now boast of a well supported Dispensary, Poor Schools and the present Institution, which appears likely to reward, by the most perfect success, the highly praiseworthy intentions of its founders.

We perceive by an Advertisement, from some of the journeymen Carpenters of this City, that the spirit of combination, is by to subside by a speedy dis-union.

Mr. Douglas, Treasurer of the Dispensary, has received from Lord Clare six Guineas, per Stephen Dickson, Esq. his ship's Subscription to that Institution.

The Treasurer of the Medicity Association has received 17s. 6d. from Jeremiah Shive, Esq.

The Meeting of the Subscribers to the Lying-in-Hospital, convened for Friday next, advertised last page, is unavoidably postponed until Monday 15th.

A Bay Mare has been in the Pound Newcastle for five weeks, she will be sold for her keep unless claimed before Monday next.

THEATRE.—Richard the Third the Hunter of the Alps were the entertainments of last night. Mr. COFFMAN as Richard, was admired and applauded that arduous part was sustained by him with the ability which he is distinguished. To-morrow night the tragedy of Virginia will be performed for his Benefit. If private worth and professional talent merit support, ought to have a crowded audience.

Miss Byrne's Benefit at our Theatre Monday produced nearly £100; the house was a Bumper.

We understand that Mr. Elrington, long delighted the tasteful and discerning auditory of Terry on Monday night, with his care-killing entertainment "Stage Coach Adventures," &c. &c. will be at the Theatre at Newry, on Tuesday evening next, and at Birr, Monday evening, 24th inst. Early in February he is expected to resume his
