

ke of Kent, Lisbon packet, Captain Falmouth, arrived in Cork harbour, after having been for fifteen days in el. She left Lisbon on the 20th ult. mail, which was landed on Monday. The Duke of Kent has 100,000 dollars remittances in lieu of bills. Although have been delivered, we have been h a communication from Lisbon, which me very interesting intelligence. It is Lisbon, Dec. 12, Sunday, the 10th inst. the first Election on the 12th ended very peaceably with the second Election. The Electors assembled for that purpose, when the ves- the Ex-Regency's dispatches to the resting his permission to call the Cortes, with the answer, which was—that his is ready to sanction with his consent that they, the Ex-Regents, thought s, provided it did not infringe on his ogatives; and if they thought his pre- d be necessary, he would immediately re- pe. This news caused a great sen- ghout the City; the mob ran in crowds aercial square, where Colonel Sepul- n the Senate window, read the dispatch itude below, and upon their expressing a'ction' he told them that though the s not intended for them, still that they o far that his Majesty's consent was jeot at present, as they would be sure of at last. The mob cheered him loudly great favourite with them) and conti- square, till a late hour, when they ay, and on their road accidentally the windows of several Gentlemen e misfortune not to be of their opinion. remarked, that when the Dispatches the King did not know any thing of of the 15th September.

Letters from Maranham and Pernam- that the people there are determined, if itution is not granted them, to constitute independent and separate from the Mo- y. eat majority of the people here are fully hat the King will accept any Constitu- tes may offer.

ing's Letter to the Ex-Regency has ublished—only partial extracts. In the Oporto gentlemen he calls them but pardons them, and says that it was he received the news of their daring to call a Cortes. From beginning to es not breathe a constitutional spirit but wn to be a man out of strong nerves, e doubt he will be of a different opinion s out the real sentiments of his beloved e kingdom. Nothing but the Gover- alling out amongst themselves can pre- rom accomplishing the work they have

On Tuesday night, some fellows attempted to attack the house of Mr. Ben. Corneille, at Bally- currane, near Patriok's well, in this County, but fled, on a shot being discharged by his servant.— One of the banditti was heard to cry, "I am murdered." Mr. Corneill's house was surrounded on Monday night by a band of ruffians, and also beat off. Their intention was to get his fire arms.

We hear that the fire-arms lately taken from Mr. Massey's, at Stonehall, have been recovered, and the ruffians who were concerned in the robbery have, for the present, eluded justice.

Mrs. Russell, wife of Mr. Benjamin Russell, of Denmark-street, Baker, died on Wednesday last, in consequence of a fright when his house was attacked by a party of ruffians, under the denomi- nation of the United Trades.

George Long, the Policeman, was admitted to bail on Thursday, by an order from Government to the Mayor.

Yesterday, the County Limerick Sessions ended, when the following received sentence:—

- William Flin, for assaulting Mr. Smith, Chief Peace Officer of Police, to be publicly flogged through the town of Bruff, on the 1st Market day in May, and to be confined six months.
 - Thady Danaher, assault, fined 6d. and to give bail, and one week imprisonment.
 - John Humphrys, assault, fined 6d. and to give bail, and one week imprisonment.
 - Cornelius Shehan, riot and assault, one month imprisonment, and give bail.
 - Thomas Ryan, rescuing goods distrained for rent, two months imprisonment, and give security to keep the peace.
 - John Loughlin, assault, one month imprisonment.
- The next County Limerick Sessions will take place at Rathkeale on the 30th of April, and at Limerick on the 4th of May.

Tuesday, the City Quarter Sessions were opened at the Tholaei, with the usual formalities, before the Right Worshipful Christopher Magrett, Esq. Mayor, Aldermen Watson, Russell, and Gabbett, when the following Grand and Market Juries were sworn, viz.

GRAND JURY.—Henry Watson, Burgess, Foreman; John Harrison, William Carr, Jeffrey Foote, Joseph Barrington, Michael Egan, James Dodd, Robert Baker, James Ewart, William Fitz-Gerald, Henry White, John Morgan, W. Glover, Martin Arthur, Thomas Merrick, Wm. Wilson, W. Ward, G. M'Donnell, David Hunt, Joseph Delany, William White, James Caulfield, and David Stevenson.

MARKET JURY—Martin Egan, David Ward, Richard Scott, William Connell, Michael Nowlan, Thomas Hinks, M. Meagher, John Fitz-Gibbon, Michael Slattery, James Eves, W. M'Kern, and Thomas Quinlan.

The Proprietors hereof have received from A. B. Five Shillings, for the woman whose distress was mentioned in a former publication.

The Letter in reference to the Horticultural Society, is inadmissible.

FOUR NEWS.—The wind having shifted to S.W. the following vessels arrived in this harbour since our last:—Martha, Thomas, London, ballast; Jessie, Sharp, Rothsay, herrings; Caledonia, McNeillige, Greenock, coals; Lady Coole, Duncan, Dublin, ballast; Hears, Jameson, Greenock, coals; Greenfield, Myle, Irvine, coals; Draper, Brown, Greenock, sundries; Glenanner, Murray, Greenock, coals; Heart of Oak, Evans, Saltcoats, ditto; Rose, Triplett, Newport, ditto; Olina, Mickle, Rothsay, herrings; New Liberty, Baneil, Cork, ballast; Jenny, Duncan, Greenock,

WE, the Undersigned, request you of the County, for the purpose forwarding a Petition to both Houses the subject of the Spirit Intercourse Act affecting the Agricultural Interests of To EDWARD VILLIERS, Esq. High Sheriff County of Limerick.

- | | |
|-----------------------|---------|
| Clare | Richard |
| Eonismore, | R. Fitz |
| Edward Croker, | Richard |
| John Croker, | William |
| R. H. Croker, | John Cr |
| Robert Croker, Clerk. | Peter L |
| H. Conside, | Crosbie |
| T Henry Royle, | Robert |
| John Low | Henry C |

Pursuant to the above Requisition, I of the Freeholders of the County Limerick Court-House, Limerick, on Tuesday Two o'Clock, in the afternoon, EDWARD VILLIERS

TO BE LET, For such Term as may be From the 1st Day of MAY THAT Part of the Lands of THAT Liberties of this City, now occupatives of the late Mr. THOMAS FITZMAURICE, containing about Thirteen Acres of the best circumstances in every respect, part BENJAMIN FREND, Esq. a Minor. Proposals in Writing to GEORGE Bona Vista Cottage, Cork; BENJAMIN Rocklow, Fethard; or to Mrs COPPIN be forwarded by D. F. G. MAHONY, Street, Limerick.

TO BE SOLD, A HANDSOME CHESNU Six Years old—warranted To be seen at Mr. DEACON'S on Tues

PALMERSTOWN WATER THIS pure and wholesome Water Families, at the following reduced

1	Bucket daily (Sundays excepted) per	Per Annum,
2	do. do. per month,
3	do. do. per month,
4	do. do. per month,

Annual Subscribers to be allowed the Quarter. Each Bucket contains five Gallons. Subscriber for Four, has Twenty Gallons delivered at his house for less than one distinguish the Carts supplying this water Carts, with which, to the discredit of the sometimes confounded—these will be in any complaints as to the quality of the of the supply, on being made to JOHN G town, will be immediately attended to. Profit not being the object, the charge as low, as by a calculation, would cover bringing it, perhaps, below that supplied by it is therefore hoped that the complaints a unpalatable and unwholesome quality Water, will be removed by the opportu procuring that of Palmerstown, whi remarkable for its excellence.