DECEASED—This morning, after three days illness, at his seat, Linsfield, in this County, Mrs. Lloyd Apjohn, wife of Michael Lloyd Apjohn, Esq. a Lady of the most unbounded philanthropy, and in the discharge of the relative duties of life, her example was worthy of imitation; her death is deeply regretted by her highly respectable family and connexions—On Sunday night, in George's-street, Mrs. Moore, wife of Mr. Samuel Moore; deservedly and sincerely regretted by her afflicted family and friends, to whom her many virtues endeared her; affectionately tender as a wife and mother; kind and consistent as a friend; pure and pious as that religion which her walk testified more amply than the most high sounding profession. She bore a severe illness with the most perfect subjugation to the will of Him who was her all, her crown of rejoicing, and fell asleep in the glorious certainty of redemption through his blood.
 "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord"—On Monday, in George's-street, aged about fifteen years, William, eldest son of John Wickham, Esq. of Madeboy, a young Gentleman of most pleasing manners, and promising abilities, and whose premature death is a source of the deepest affliction to his affectionate parents and friends—At Newtownhamilton, Mr. Gawie Shaw, aged eighty years—At Portsmouth, in the 60th year of his age, Admiral Sir George Campbell, K. C. B. Commander-in-Chief of that port—At Liverpool, Lieut. Christopher Hilliard, 4th Royal Veteran Battalion, formerly of the 88th Regiment—In Cork, Mr. Mathias Leahy—At Killrush, on Friday last, most deservedly regretted, Mr. Terence M'Mahon, woollen-draper.
 He was an upright honest man, possessing the strictest principles of honor and integrity; the greatest consolation to his family and friends is, that while thirty years a respected trader, he has died with an unblemished and unsullied character—On Sunday, the 14th inst. after a tedious illness, which she bore with Christian fortitude and resignation, Mrs.
 Gregg, wife of Cunningham Gregg, Esq. of Ballymenoch, near Belfast—At Crescent Merino, Mrs. Talbot; she had death always before her mind, and regarded the near approach of it with christian fortitude and hope—On Monday night, in Mungret-street, Mr. Edward Musgrave, saddler and upholsterer—At Coolfune, near Killysart, Mr. Michael O'Shaughnessy—Yesterday, at O'Brien's-bridge, at an advanced age, Thomas Seymour, Esq. Supervisor of Inland Navigation; a Gentleman very much and very deservedly respected and regretted—In Carlow, Mr. James Furlong, of the Firm of Lawler and Furlong—On Friday last, at Kilkenny, Co. Carlow, Eliza, eldest daughter of the late John Lecky, Esq. of Ballykenley, in said County, and wife of John Watson, Esq. of said place. She was a member of the Society of Friends—On Friday, at his house, near Ardfer, Christopher Hilliard, Esq. of Hillsborough-Lodge, Co. Kerry—Yesterday, at Newport, Mrs. Carey, wife of Mr. Richard Carey.—In the East Indies, Lieut. C. Brennan, 14th Regiment of Foot.
