THEATRE.—Mr. Seymour has procured another dramatic attraction in the person of the distinguished,—we may almost say, unrivalled TALBOT! On Monday Evening, "Hamlet" and "The Lyar" will be represented. The Prince of Denmark and young Wilding by Mr. Talbot;—and perhaps, no other Manager in the Empire could afford such a Theatrical treat for the gratification of public taste as will be then presented. With the splendid and varied talents of Mr. Talbot, we are all familiar; and he is not more esteemed as a Man, than admired as an Actor. With every acquirement that adorns the Gentleman, he unites intellectual endowments of a rare and peculiar quality. His other engagements limit his present visit to three nights only, and during that short period the Limerick audience will have an opportunity of witnessing the most graceful and finished Actor of his time, giving faithful portraiture to the first and most accomplished Characters in the legitimate drama.

Mr. McCarthy's new Drama of 'Florence McCarthy,' was most flutteringly received last night. The House would have been filled and his benefit productive, but for some people of Fashion, whose Balls kept several persons of respectability from the Theatre; however, the Pit and Middle Lettices were crowded—the Boxes though not full were fashionable.
