"Dublin Castle, February 10, 1821.
Lieutenant having transmitted the very Address to his Majesty the King, from Magistrates, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of County of Roscrea, I am commanded by your Majesty, that he has received a letter from Sir John Dalrymple, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, signifying that his Majesty was pleased to be in the most gracious manner, I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your most obedient humble Servant,
W. GREGORY.
Smith, Esq. Roscrea."

last, two smuggling vessels have arrived at Milton Malbay, near Miltown Malbay, and neared the shore with intent of discharging their cargoes. One of them having run aground, struck the ground in front of the other, and could not get off, upon which the first vessel immediately thronged with soldiers and officers, perceiving her discharging the cargoes in canoes to the other vessel.
