DEAD.—With sincere sorrow we announce the death of a second daughter of our much respected fellow-citizen, Joseph Massy Harvey, Esq. within the short space of two months, in the amiable wife of James Fisher, Esq. which melancholy event took place at Sunnerville, her father's seat, on Monday last. If a heart possessed of every virtue that could adorn woman; if a life spent in the exercise of every duty, can contribute to the repose of her departed spirit, her afflicted family have these consolations.
She endured a tedious illness with meekness and fortitude;
in truth, she lived to die, and we fervently hope that she died, to live for ever. Her remains are to be interred in the Friends' burial ground to-morrow.—In London, Lord Viscount Chetwynd.—In the 19th year of his age, Ensign Alexander Amsinck, of the 92d Regiment, or Gordon Highlanders. He met a premature death by drowning, while on his passage from the island of Jamaica.—Edward, son of Crofton Lawrence, Esq. of Brooklawn, Queen's County.—

the late Henry Harrison, Esq. of Dublin.—In Mullingar, aged 77 years, Mr. William Kidd, the founder and (till within these few years) the Proprietor of the Westmeath Journal. After living an exemplary Christian life, and maintaining throughout a most consistent and unsullied character, he closed this mortal life in peace, with a well-grounded hope, through Christ, of a glorious immortality.— In Ennis, Miss Corry, only surviving daughter of Mr.
Michael Corry.—At her house in the Crescent, Bath, Lady Dunally, mother of Lord Dunally and Hon. F. A. Prittie, M. P. Co. Tipperary.—At Madeira, Joseph M'Clure, Esq. son of Robert M'Clure, Esq. of Cork.
