They beg that all Orders directed to their House would be sealed, as through the ignorance of messengers, orders which have been directed to them were frequently received and executed in other Shops, much to their prejudice and the injury of their Friends. Physicians' Prescriptions are not compounded. An APPRENTICE of respectability would be taken, and a liberal fee expected. Limerick, March 21, 1821.

CHEAP DRUG, OIL, COLOUR, PATENT MEDICINE, AND DYE STUFF WAREHOUSE, NO. 1 CORN-MARKET ROW, (Next door to T. Newson's Brass and Iron Works). JOSEPH AND HORATIO SEYMOUR. Begg leave to inform their friends and the public, that they are constantly supplied with goods in the above line. They have lately received a fresh supply, which they are enabled to sell as cheaply as any House in Limerick, and trust from their personal knowledge of the business, and keeping genuine Goods, they may continue to deserve the kind support they have experienced since their commencement in business. Country Dispensaries and Apothecaries supplied on reasonable terms. Gentlemen having Painting Work to do, and wishing to provide their own Paints, will be sure of getting them unadulterated at the above establishment. Limerick, March 21, 1821.

WEST OF ENGLAND FIRE AND LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, BY ACT OF PARLIAMENT, CAPITAL, Six Hundred Thousand Pounds, OFFICE, COMMERCIAL BUILDINGS, LIMERICK. TRUSTEES: Right Hon. Earl Forlescue, Lord Lieut. of Devon. Right Hon. Earl Morley. Right Hon. Lord Clifford. Sir Thomas Dyke Acland, Bart. Member of Council. Edmond Pollexfen Bastard, Esq. for Devon. Sir M. M. Lopez, Bart. &c. &c. This Company is established and supported by a numerous and opulent body of Proprietors, (of whom the above are a few) who have subscribed a Capital, which, with its accumulation, is INVARIABLY VESTED IN GOVERNMENT AND REAL SECURITIES, in the names of the ABOVE TRUSTEES. Hence, the Security of the Public does not rest upon the mere receipt of Premiums, nor upon anticipated income, AND THE ASSURED ARE NOT BOUND BY ANY COVENANT OR AGREEMENT, TO MAKE GOOD ANY INCIDENTAL LOSSES, AS IS THE CASE IN SOCIETIES, upon the CONTRIBUTION OR MUTUAL GUARANTEE PRINCIPLE. FIRE OFFICE. One Fourth part of the Profits is returned every Fifth Year, to persons insured against Fire, and every Insurance of Two Years standing, of the Term, is entitled to a proportionate share of such profits—and the Assured against Fire, are also entitled to the same share of the gain accruing from the Insurance of Lives. Upon this plan, two Returns have already been made to the Public, thereby producing a considerable reduction in the expense of Insurance. LIFE OFFICE. At this Office Lives are Insured to the age of SEVENTY with as great facility and dispatch as at any other in Limerick; the Premiums are Ten Per Cent under the rates usually charged by the several Assurance Companies of London—and Losses Paid with a degree of Promptness hitherto unknown in Ireland. JOHN MERCY & SON. AGENTS. March 21.

CAUTION. HAVING lately expended a considerable sum in making and repairing Banks and Water-courses, and other Fences on the Marquis of Lansdowne's Estate, in the North Liberties of Limerick; and being about to expend more money in similar improvements, I hereby forbid all Horsemen from riding on any of the said banks for the purpose of making short cuts, or amusing themselves by leaping their Horses; and I also caution all Horsemen against leaping over any of the Walls or other fences, or riding through any of the fields on said Estate, without my permission, or the consent of the Tenants of such Lands as they may ride upon or into. And I hereby offer a reward of ONE GUINEA for information of the first person who shall break through this prohibition. JOSEPH MASSY HARVEY. Agent to the Marquis of Lansdowne. Limerick, 21st of 3d month (March), 1821. I expect that no Gentleman will ride on the Banks, &c. after this caution, as it is my duty to protect the Tenantry from such Damages by taking proceedings at law against such persons as shall commit any of the before mentioned trespasses. C ordered 2
