DIED—On the 6th instant, at Mountstewart, the Most Noble Robert, Marquis of Londonderry; and, on the 9th, in obedience to his Lordship's own express desire, his remains were interred, privately, in the family vault at Newtownards.
The Noble Marquis was born the 27th of September, 1739; married first, June 3d, 1766, Sarah Francis Seymour, second daughter of Francis, first Marquis of Hertford, and had issue by her, (who died July 17th, 1770,) Alexander Francis, who died in May, 1769; Robert, Viscount Castlereagh, now Marquis of Londonderry, born June 18th, 1769, and married January 9th, 1794, Amelia Hobart, youngest daughter and co-heiress of John, second Earl of Buckinghamshire. The Marquis married secondly, June 7th, 1775, Frances, eldest daughter of Charles Pratt, first Earl of Camden, by whom he had issue the present Lord Stewart, two sons and eight daughters. His Lordship was descended from Sir Thomas Stewart, of Minto, second son of Sir William Stewart, of Garlies, ancestor to the Earls of Galloway. His Lordship was created Baron, November 18th, 1789; Viscount, October 6th, 1795; Earl, August 10th, 1793; and Marquis, January 22d, 1816; he was one of the twenty-eight Repre-
