The Rifle Brigade, the last division of which left this City, on Tuesday morning, for the county of Cork, are destined, we understand, for Corfu.

The King has been pleased to confer a special mark of his favour on that gallant and excellently appointed Corps the 51st Light Infantry, commended by Lieutenant-Colonel Rice C. B. by commanding that it shall in future be called the 51st or "The King's Own Light Infantry Regiment;" and that the uniform of the Regiment shall be faced with blue, and laced with gold.

Colonel Bull has arrived in Dublin, for the purpose of taking the command of the Staff of the Royal Artillery.

Lieutenant Charles Napier is appointed to command the Vandaleur, Revenue Cruiser, on the Irish station.

On Monday next, the troops in this garrison will fire a feu de joye, in honour of our beloved Sovereign's Anniversary.

The report of the trial, Wheatly v. Callaghan, copied into this Journal from the Cork Advertiser, is, we are informed, in many respects incorrect.— Mr. Waggett, in stating Plaintiff's case, did not use the words, as the report represented, "purse proud insolence."

The Mayor this day banded Five Shillings to the Treasurer of the House of Industry, a fine for breach of the law, respecting butter.
