DEATHS.

Wednesday, at her house on the Grand Parade, Cork, after a very protracted and severe illness, Mrs. Hoskis, daughter of Michael Roberts Westropp, Esq.—The worth of this Lady, the numerous good qualities which adorned her head and heart, the elegance of her manners, and the suavity of her disposition, are so well known and appreciated among her extended circle of friends and acquaintances, that it would be superfluous to enlarge on them here. With christian resignation, she endured the long and excruciating complaint which proved fatal to her, and died the death of the righteous in the bosom of an afflicted family, to every member of which she was endeared, as a wife, a mother, a daughter, or a sister.

At Bruff on Thursday, Mrs. Sherlock, relict of the late J. Sherlock, Esq. and daughter of the late James Boucher, Esq of Baggotstown in this County, her remains were this day interred in the Cathedral.

At Twickenham, most sincerely lamented by his brother officers, Lieutenant Robson, of the 30th regt. Infantry.
