The uncertain tenure of human existence was very awfully displayed in the sudden death of Mr. James Roche, of Anna, near Tralee, on Thursday last. While standing in the street, shortly after having alighted from his horse, he felt himself ill, and having retired to a house and lain down, after a few minutes he breathed his last. How important and valuable the admonition—"Be ye also ready, for at such an hour as ye know not the Son of Man cometh."
