

of Rathkeale, fell down and the Dairy-House of George on the Lands of Coolyhenan, was a number of men, armed, who the Furniture contained therein, the milk and vessels, and beat a very cruel manner. The former been lately removed from the of Mr. Gloster's tenants' houses were attacked by the same party ill-treated.

man's house was also attacked and he burned.

evening, a Gentleman from Tar up three pieces of Linen to be which were left at Mr. O'Brien's, George's-street, in a few minutes went to the shop, and by false d the Linen, and escaped there-publication we merely noticed the of the Rev. William A. O'Meara, Cork, as Coadjutor to the Right Tuohy, Roman Catholic Bishop of

The election of this distinguished accomplished Gentleman, has given satisfaction not only to the numerous notable Clergymen who concurred op in his appointment, but also to ts at large of this City and County. n of the rank and wealth of the y of this City waited on Doctor Monday, to offer their congratula- occasion, and to thank him for his

(the Cork Southern Reporter.)

Mr. O'Meara, of the Franciscan his City, has been appointed Roman adjutor Bishop of Limerick. This, we understand, has taken place at of a majority of the Catholic Cler- at diocese, in whose wishes the Rt. uohy readily concurred, and cer- lection reflects credit on those who ose who confirmed it. Though com- oung in years, Mr. O'Meara has long time in Orders, and has been nguished for piety, talents, and ac- ministry, as for gentlemanly man- ciliating deportment.

se qualifications, the Crosier could n confined to one more fit or worthy, his elevation as an acquisition to the ody of which he may now be con- sember. In this City, which has considerable period the scene of his nd where an opportunity was con- rded of estimating his merits, lings of satisfaction and regret have d at the event, since the know- s promotion is accompanied by the but it is to be followed by a painful Town, presents a very gloomy prospect to the Inhabitants.

The gross number of Freeholders of the City of Cork, who were capable of voting on the 1st Jan. of the present year was 1620--and in the County 20,661.

Mr. Mathias Maher, of Ballymullen, has purchased the mortgaged lands and premises of James Loughnan, of Kilkenny, Banker, a Bankrupt, for £18000.

The pictures of the late Sir Joshua Reynolds, which he bequeathed to his niece, Lady Inchiquin, afterwards Marchioness of Thomond, were brought to the hammer on Friday, in London, and the number sold that day fetched £3,000.

A mare, now in the possession of Mr William Fuller Harnett, of Knockbrack, in this County, had two foals on the 21th of December last, and another on Saturday last, the 19th inst.

DEATHS.

This morning, after a short illness, Robert Young, Esq. of Ballykitty, County Clare; a Gentleman possessed of the utmost integrity, and who discharged all the relative and social duties in a manner worthy of imitation; he was an affectionate husband, excellent landlord, and disinterested friend.

The Rev. Dr. Benesfort, Rector of Cullin and also of Navan.

At Bellew, Denis, fifth son of Thomas Deaneby, Esq.

At Millmount, near Kilkenny, Barry Colles, Esq.

At Sligo, Captain John Guttrick, of his Majesty's Staff Corps of Cavalry.

Aged 50, Benjamin Alcock, sen. Esq. of Kilkenny

Mr R. Trotter, Post Master of Tanderagee.

The Rev. Doctor St. George, of Kiltrush, Co. Kilkenny, in Dublin. Mrs Steele, relict of the late Thomas Steel, Esq. of Cullane Castle, County Clare.

In Dublin, Eliza, only daughter of Paulus Singer, Esq.

In Gardiner-street, Miss Jane Wade, daughter of the late John Wade, Esq. of Bellany, county Westmeath.

In Tralee, Mr. William Falvey.

In Cork, Margaret, second daughter of the late Mr. William Shen.

At Dunderum, aged four months, Joseph, youngest son of Lieut. Goslett, of the 83d Regiment, Merion.

At Woolwich, John Renneville, Esq.

At Edinburgh, Mr Andrew Wood, Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons, in the 50th year of his age.

At Barbadoes, Edmund Pierre Ford, eldest son of the late Major Ford, of Carlisle.

On board his Majesty's sloop Carlew, Mr Phipps Dixon, Midshipman, second son of Major-General Dixon, Royal Artillery

At Castlebo, the infant son of Robert Shapland Carew, jun. Esq. M. P.

In Spanishtown, Jamaica, of yellow fever, on the 13th November last Lieut. William Musterson, of Lowtown, County Meath, another of the unfortunate young Gentlemen, who embarked in the South American cause under General D'Errett.

In London, Charles Downes, Esq. State Page to his present Majesty, and 35 years Page of the Bedchamber to his late Majesty

At Edinburgh, Major John Farquharson, of the 28th Regiment, son of Lieut. Colonel Farquharson, late of the Royal Highlanders.

Dropped down suddenly in the streets, between Cornhill and the Strand, London, Mr. King, Secretary to the Fire Office.

The Rev. James Griffith, Master of the University College, Oxford.

In Cork, Mrs. Mary McCarthy, relict of the late Mr. John McCarthy, architect

In Cork, Mr. Richard Magley, sen.

Bonds, 34 pin.; Ex. Bills, 1 pin.
Account, 74; Bank Stock, 225
IRISH STOCKS—Gov. Deb. 3
Gov. Stock, 3½ per Cent. 82½
per Cent. 107½; Gov. Stock, 5
Grand Canal Loan, 6 per Cent. —
Stock, 21; Bank Stock, 203½.
Exchange—Dublin on Lon

MR. JOHN ST. JOHN

Historical and Portrait

HAS REMOVED TO

No. 36, George's-st

CORNER OF CECIL STREET

FOR the better accommodation of the separate Academies for Ladies and they are instructed in the several branches of Painting and Drawing. Stated hours for to be seen from 12 to 3 o'clock each day. N. B.—He has a few Historical and to dispose of.

A CARD.

HARVEY &

HAVE just received from Glasgow the finest quality of Shawls, Silk Handkerchiefs, and other goods, which goods they can sell at a low price. Offered in this City.

Cotton Scarfs and Shawls, 3s. to 10s.
3 4th and 4 4th Silk Scarfs, 10s. to 15s.
5-4 4th ditto, ditto, 30s. to 50s.
Silk Handkerchiefs, 3s. 6d. to 10s.
6-4th Real Merino Scarfs, 40s. to 60s.
Book, Jaconet, and Mull Muslins, &c.
N. B.—Real Persian Wool Shawls and kerchiefs entirely new and fashionable.
106, George's-street, I

HIVE

IRON, BELL, and BRASS ENGINE, PUMP and FACTORY,
CORK.

T. A. BARNE

ARE constantly Manufacturing W Salt Pans; Ditch Steam Boilers Yards, and Farming purposes; Cast double and force ditto; Ditto to act as gates, for Gentleman's Residences and Tobacco, Cider, Chandeliers and Clocks Church, Demesne, and Chapel Bells Mashing Kieves, with Machines; Flour and Separators; Malt and Oat Bruisers; Lifting Blocks, Screw-Jacks, &c.; V at three and a-half turns each; Tre chies; new highly improved Mangle Cocks; Best Hammered Shovels, Soc Curves, Bark Mills, Prime Leather Ro articles in the Wrought and Cast Iron tilters, Mill Owners, &c. &c. &c.

BARNES and CO. having a large long Patterns, considerable accommodation can be afforded to those who favour the

A Six and Three Horse Steam low terms.

Fine and Coarse Wire Web, 3 on sold by Mr. JAMES MARK, rick, at Cork Prices.