yesterday, resolved on immediately sitting up a distinct apartment for such objects as are aduis- sable into this Hospital and who may be afflicted with dysentery. The funds of this Institution being so precarious and at all times so low, a humane and generous public is earnestly called on for pecuniary aid to meet this additional expense; and surely, if one case more than another calls for peculiar attention, it is the situation of a woman pregnant, labouring under such an afflicting disease.—The Patroness, Mrs. Elrington, the Committee of Ladies, or Rev. William D. Hoare, Treasurer, will receive the smallest contributions that may be offered on such a trying occasion.
