

...and also of or at Triemung and Class, above taxes, upon the trusts herein and she thereby gave to each of them the and John Pinkerton, and to the Trustee succeeding to him, and acting in his place, sum of £40 Irish currency, as a recompence the execution of the trusts of her will, above er, she thereby gave to the Jubilee Charity of Limerick, the sum of £100 Irish curto the poor room-keepers of the City of shares and form as the said John Duddell to, or the Trustees for the time being, oper and select, the sum of £50 Irish curthereby further gave unto the said John Pinkerton, their Executors and Adminis-of £100 Irish currency, in trust, to lay out public funds, or upon real security, in Ireland, ever thereafter, to apply the interest and same towards the relief or discharge of small debts in the year of Limerick.—
 she gave to the said John Duddell and John Executors and Administrators, one annuity currency, above taxes, in trust to pay and for the benefit of the Protestant Female of the City Limerick, in such manner as her or the time being, should in their discretion and she thereby further gave unto the said John Pinkerton, their Heirs and Assigns, in St. Muncilla's Parish, in the City Lime-been formerly purchased by her of Lord trust for the purpose of having Alms-houses thereon for the reception and habitation of as therein after mentioned. And to the Land and Alms-houses might for ever and enjoyed by such Twelve Widows, for And she thereby gave to her friend, Sarah per Cent Bank Annuities, and also her street, and her Interest therein; and also ware, Watch, and Trinkets, Wearing Wines, House-linen, Household Goods and very kind, for her own use absolutely, over of Money or Stock in the Public Funds, Testamentary to said Sarah Percy, or in trust for vision given by said Testatrix for Sarah Percy.
 Will contains divers other devices and for divers persons not connected with any public use, and then contains a device and the said John Duddell and John Pinkerton, Executors and Administrators, and of all the Testatrix's real and personal estates, not disposed of, upon trust, as soon as conve-he, after her decease, to sell and dispose of the real estates, together or in parcels, or by auction, or by private contract, and convert the residue of her personal estates and to of the money to be produced thereby upon ing, that is to say, to lay out so much money and or upon real securities in Ireland, in the said Trustee, for the time being, as by the annual produce thereof, would produce the of £80 Irish currency, above taxes, and to again as a fund for payment of said two 5; and £45 to her said Trustee for the time in execution of the trusts of her said Will;
 lay out so much money in the public funds, Estates in Ireland, as by the dividends of thereof would produce the clear yearly sum and to appropriate the same as a fund for annuity of £15 yearly; and also in trust invest so much of the moneys to arise by estate, and to be produced by her personal id trustees should think proper, in erecting Alms-houses for the reception and twelve poor widows, and to lay out and of the said moneys as her said Trustee for should think proper in furnishing and support-houses when built; and that said Alms-houses be occupied and inhabited by such twelve her said Trustee for the time being, with er personal representatives or representative time being, should think proper to select

Esq. of a son.
 The Lady of James Percy, Esq. of a son.
 In Queen Anne-street, London, the Lady of John Callaghan, Esq. of a son.
 Mrs. Rantolph, of a son.
 At Ashpington, near Tunow, the Lady of the Rev. J.
 Lee, of a son.
 At Sligo, Lancashire, the lady of Thomas Green, Esq. of a daughter.
 At York, the lady of Lieutenant Colonel Gordon, 5th Dragoon Guards, of a son.
 At Paris, the Countess Ponlett, of a son.
 At Millham Grove, the lady of G. M. Moore, Esq. of a son.

MARRIAGES

At Passage Church, Co. Waterford, William Figg, Esq.
 Commander of his Majesty's Revenue Cruiser, Griper, to Margaret, third daughter of the late Francis Hewitson, Esq.
 At Spencer House, Charles Neville, Esq. of Nevill Holt, Leicestershire, to Lady Georgiana Bingham, fourth daughter of the Earl of Lucas
 At Killarney, Captain M. L. Gallway, of the East India Company's Service, Bombay Establishment, to Lucy, third daughter of the late Nathaniel Bland, Esq. of Lane Melville, County Kerry.
 At Passage, near Cork, Mr. D. Morley, to Mary Ann, only daughter of Mr. T. Donovan, both of said City.
 At the Cross, Co. Cork, Mr. Patrick H. O'Leary, to Margaret, eldest daughter of Mr. Richard Donovan.
 The Rev. Charles Shiplay, son of the Dean of Aompa, to Charlotte, daughter of Robert Sloper, Esq. of Berke.
 The Rev. George Russell Orchard, Curate of North Bradley, to Eliza, only daughter of Robert Hooper, Esq. of Bradford, Wilts.

DEATHS

At Cordangan, Co. Tipperary, in the 63d year of his age, John Cooke, Esq. Barrister at Law, a Gentleman well known in the literary world, and universally regretted.
 Of a lingering illness of six months duration, James Donovan, Esq. of Clonakilly, M. D. The sincere regret which this gentleman's death has occasioned, is not confined to his family and connections. It is diffused over the wide circle of his acquaintances.
 At Sligo, Hugh O'Neil, Esq.
 In the 14th year of her age, Alicia, eldest daughter of the late Charles O'Connell, Esq. of Trillick.
 At Killarney, of fever, Mr. Christopher Herly.
 In Dublin, at the advanced age of 94, Mrs. Caldwell; relict of the late William Caldwell, Esq. one of his Majesty's Counsel at Law.
 In Dublin, Lieut.-Colonel Campbell, of the 2d Royal Veteran Battalion.
 In Ballymahon, Peyton Johnston, son, Esq.
 At Killough, James Cumins, Esq. many years a Magistrate for the Co. Down In Westmoreland-street, Dublin, Mr. P. Byrne, glover.
 At Liverpool, Marian, daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Gabriel, 2d Dragoon Guards
 Thomas Payne, Esq. of Gloucester.
 The Rev. John Moore, of St. Paul's Cathedral, Limerick.
 At Rathdrum, Sarah, relict of the late Thomas Middleton, Esq.
 At the South Wall, Cork, Mr. John Foot.
 At his seat in Devonshire, Abel Worth, Esq. He has bequeathed £5,000 to the Episcopalian School for boys at Exeter, £3,000 to the same Establishment for girls; £3,000 to the School of St. John's Hospital, in that city; and a handsome legacy to the Devon and Exeter Hospital.
 In his 49th year, Doctor James Carmichael Smyth.
 Dr. Hague, Professor of Music in the University of Cambridge.
 At Falmouth, Lieut. and Adjutant Laffer, of the Plymouth Division of Royal Marines.
 At Bathenston, the Rev. Race Godfrey, D. D. of Walcot Parade, Bath.
 At Templemore, on the 20th instant, William Allworth Clarke, the beloved child of Lieutenant W. A. Clarke, 40th Regiment.
 At Puddle-Trenthidel, Dorset, Lieut. W. Alner, R. N.
 Mr. Thomas Moran, of Longford.
 At Plymouth, Captain Caulfield, of his Majesty's ship
 Windsor-Castle.

...Whiskey, 10s. 6d. per gallon.
 Butter in Waterford on Tuesday 9s 4d to 9s 6d; Wheat, 25s 0d per 9s 6d; Pork, 23s to 24s.
Dublin Corn Exchange.
 There was a good demand at our white Wheat for export, which caused a fully 6d. per barrel; best red Wheat was prices. Prime feeding Oats were in ex-great demand, at an advance of 3d. to 6 prior Oats were without alteration from articles there is not any alteration.
FAIRS IN THE ENSUING
 County Limerick—Monday, 2d Jul
 Tuesday, 4th, Ballygarry, Limerick.
 County Tipperary—Wednesday, 4th, 5th, Clonoulty; Friday, 6th, Mullinal
 County Clare—Wednesday, 4th, Ball
 John's-well, and Moyarta; 6th, Amerga
 County Cork—Wednesday, 4th, M 5th, Middleton, Timoleague.
 County Waterford—Thursday, 5th,
PORT NEWS.—Arrived—Lady M<sup>rs</sup> andries; William M<sup>rs</sup> Kwy, Glasgow, I Charvonn, dates; Bransuis, Hutchins
 Margaret, Shields, Rothay, & Co.
IRISH STOCKS—Gov. Deb. 5
 Gov. Stock, 3¼ per Cent. 84½ per Cent. 107¼; Gov. Stock, Grand Canal Loan, 6 per Ct. 60
 Stock, —; Bank Stock, 226½.
Exchange—Dublin on L

TO BE LET, IMMEDIATELY
FOR A LONG TERM OF
THE
BOLTING
HOUSES and LA
AT THE OLD BARRACK OF C
AS LATELY HELD
WILLIAM CONN
COMPRISING NEARLY TH
THESE Concerns have been heretofore
DISTILLERY and BREWERY
 adapted to the FANNING, or BLENDING, being well supplied with Water.
 Proposals in writing (post-paid) to
 Esq. or Doctor FETHERSTON, Brary

LIMERICK LANCASTERIAN
THE Premises of the School were went for non-payment of Rent, made in the Treasurer's hands to discharge the debt of the said Premises, we the Trulease of said Premises, request a Meetings of this Institution, at the Common WEDNESDAY, the 11th of JULY, a purpose of considering the practicability Premises, (on which a sum of £975 has permanent Buildings,) or the eligibility forest therein, and disposing of the nett such manner as a subsequent Meeting of determine.
ROBERT MAUNSELL
JOHN MARK,
WILLIAM ROCH
JOHN HARTIGAN
 Limerick, June 30, 1821.
 N. B. No Person is qualified to vote of Governors of the Lancastrerian Schoo given is one payment a donation of 1 wards, or an annual subscriber of one whose Subscription is paid up to the 1821.