

met the Committee.
 presence with the Lord Mayor, Alder-and Mr. Shaw, M. P. it was a dis-standing, that, as a preliminary to d happy union of Protestant and all party insignia, of whatever ll demonstrations of public feeling, be offensive to Catholics, should be Upon this understanding they rt of his Lordship having been read, well, after adverting to the circum-he decoration of the Statue in Colon the day immediately following standing, with more than the usual zeal, recommended, that, under the d disappointed feeling which all pre-have experienced, in common with this apparent breach of faith, no should be entered into; he, therefore, adjournment until this day.

l and Mr. Howley opposed the ad-which was supported by Mr. Nicho-After a discussion of some length, ing Resolutions were moved by Mr.
 adopted unanimously:—

—That animated as we are by the timents of gratitude and joy at the visit of our gracious Sovereign to this d yielding to no class of the comdelity and attachment to his Royal had received with the utmost corexpression of a wish on the part of ayor, and some other leading Mem-Corporation of the City of Dublin, uld co-operate with them in the cele-so fortunate an event; and we enter-hope that the assurance which was all offensive symbols of faction should side, would not have been violated, occasion when all religious differences merged in one united feeling of loyvotion to his Majesty.

—That after so distinct an engage-all emblems of party and offensive should be discontinued, the investing ue in College-green, in the colours employed for the purpose of insult, of that undertaking, and while it roves political passions into a viola-public peace, is more peculiarly cal-his moment to interrupt the harmony e were earnestly anxious to lend our n.
 ory conversation followed, as to the of honouring the day of his Majesty's by a combining effort of Protestant ic; nothing definitive was, however,
 , and the Meeting adjourned to xt.

as pleasure to learn, that an investi-
 e commence, forthwith into the cir-which caused the decorating of the he 12th instant, in defiance of the Authorities. We are informed, that of all the City Magistracy will be e Mansion House, this day, for that
 The notice to attend has been issued

At Riverstown, the son of Mr. James Hackett.
 the Lady of Alexander Graydon, Esq. of a son.
 The Lady of Captain Richards, of Westford, of a son.
 At Goodale, in the County Waterford, the Lady of the Thomas Tuckey, of a son.
 At Clugheen, the Lady of R. Grubb, Esq. of a daughter.
 The Lady of Major Kentwell, R. A. of a daughter.
 In Paris, Lady Buzhen, of a son.
 At Chester, the Lady of Lieut.-Colonel Tryon, 88th
 Regiment, of a son.
 At Kennington, the Lady of Alfred Tomlins, Esq. of a son being the 15th child.
 In Rutland street, Dublin, the Lady of Oliver D. J
 Bruce, Esq. of a son and heir.

MARRIAGES.

In Waterford, Edward Townsend, Esq. of Whitehall, to Cork, to Mary, second daughter of the late Thomas Warren, Esq. of Prospect Villa, in the same County.
 Mr. James Lought, of this City, to Letitia, second daughter of Mr. Patrick O'Kelly.
 At Bath, J. Logan, Esq. to Mrs. Cathcart, relict of David Cathcart, Esq. and daughter of the late Conway Henley, Cork, Esq.
 At Churcham, Laurence Deborough, Esq. of Furnival-in, to Frances, daughter of John Harris, Esq.
 In London, Thomas Venables, Esq. to Anne, daughter of the King, Esq.
 In Dublin, by the Rev. the Dean of Londonderry, Charles mean, Esq. Captain of his Majesty's ship Arch, third son of Sir John Simpson, Bart. of Grosely, in Berkshire, to Anne, second daughter of Thomas Woote, Esq. of Inch case, Co. Down.
 In Dublin, Neill O'Donnell, Esq. President of the General
 Office, to Catherine, daughter of the late Thomas O'Leary, Esq.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, in Rutland-street, aged 76 years, very much aged, Mrs. Upthek, relict of the late Benjamin Upthek, Esq. and mother of Mrs. Torrance, whose period was hastened the dissolution of a beloved parent from a scene of trial
 On Monday evening, John Furke, Esq. late of Tienmore, this County.
 At his house George's street, to the deep regret of her friends, Mrs. Ferguson, wife of Robert Ferguson, Esq.
 At his mother's house, St. Francis's Alley, Jeremiah
 Ryan, son of the late Mr. Jeremiah Ryan, tuncer.
 On Thursday last, of a few days illness, Richard Elezabeth, of Ballymoreprior, Co. Kerry, Esq. son-in-law of the Right Honorable Lord Ventry.
 In Clonmel, Mrs. Travers, relict of Boyle Travers, Esq.
 In Newfoundland, Mr. William Coman, of Waterford.
 Mr. John Wilson, of John-street, Clonmel.
 At Laffins, near Cashel, Mr. Edmund Keogh.
 At Mount-Pleasant, near Kinsale, Essex Edgworth, Esq.
 formerly Fort-Major of Charlesfort, in that Harbour.
 At Kilbride Castle, Susan Jane, the only daughter, and only child, the infant son of Sir Alexander Campbell Bart.
 Major David Campbell, late of the 92d Highlanders, William Edwards, Esq. of Camden-street, Dublin.
 In London, Sir Watkin Lewis, the Senior Alderman of the City.
 At Plymouth in consequence of fatigue which he underwent in Spain and Portugal, during the late war, and of which he never thoroughly recovered, Lieutenant Cosmo Cameron, of the 11th Regiment.
 In Dublin, at the advanced age of 75 years, Mrs.
 Elizabeth McDonnell, widow of the late Thomas McDonnell, Essex-street, Printer and Bookseller.
 At Lensham, Switzerland, Mrs. Keiso, wife of Archibald Keiso, Esq. of Sancerre.
 At Curlew, John Castell, Esq. late Lieut. in the Wexford Militia.
 At Wellington-place, near Wexford, Nelson Perceval,
 Esq. son of the late Captain Perceval, Wexford Militia.
 At Cholesbury, Bucks, George Hassett, Esq. and his sister Margaret Hassett.
 Helen, daughter of the Right Hon. A. Colquhoun.
 Very generally lamented, Garden Ferry, Esq.
 Joseph Chamberlain, Esq. of Toolstown, Co. Kildare.
 In Kingston, Jamaica, Mr. Roger O'Callaghan.

THE MARKETS.

Market prices this day.—No Wheat at market to-day.

ators, and their commands promptly application to him (if by letter, postage Henry-street, Dublin.

NOTICE.

THE Commissioners in a Commisawarded and issued against JOHN City of Limerick, Merchant, intend to Exchange, Dublin, on the 26th day of o'clock in the Afternoon, in order to rec-from such Creditors as have not al-demands against the Estate of the said
 GA

July 18.

ROBERT RE

PROPRIETOR of the Cheap Ready
 BLANKET, COUNTERPAIN
 QUILT, LINEN, MUSLIN, HOSE
 Ware-house, 12, Francis-Street, Lin-supplied with every article in his li-respectfully to inform his friends and now absent from Limerick, at Watering-will pay most particular attention to any containing remittances, and will send expense to Kilmish, from where they at Miltown, Lathin, Kiltree, &c.
 A good supply of Mourning goods, &c.
 the shortest notice, and with economy.

REMITTAN TO ENGLAND.

EDWARD BERNARD
 Begs to inform his Friends and those occasion to make

REMITTANCES TO ENG
 that he is always supplied
 BANK OF ENGLAND FOST
 AND
 BILLS ON LONDON

DRAWN AFTER DATE.
 Government Stock and Debentures No
 Life Insurances effected; and Drafts, ac-can be had on Sir R. C. Glynn, Bart. & Co and Orders at sight on Dublin.

BARRACK PROPOS

PROPOSALS will be received for Pa-of Cork; the Sashes and Sash-Fran-be printed with two Coats of best White Sashes to be carefully examined, clean-lined where necessary. The exterior and all exterior wood-work to be painted Coats of Chestnut Color and best Oil of the Officers' apartments to get one Coat lead and Oil.
 Similar and separate proposals will the Barracks of Limerick, Fermoy, Cl-each Proposal to state in detail the quan-the price charged for each item: as we will be required. No Money will be pa-completed and certified for.
 Sealed Proposals to be given in on of July next, and directed to R. O.
 Superintendent-General of Barracks, Po-

ROYAL EXCH ASSURANCE,

Established by Royal Statute of the first an-
 In Chap. 112, and on the severa-
 man: pressed there-amount of duty, as
 and that