stopt at about two miles from the latter town by seven armed men, who fired several shots at him - one large ball entering his right side, and several slugs were lodged in different parts of his body.

A man and boy were riding with Mr. Hoskins previous to the outrage, and it is stated that the former ran off when he perceived the villains approach Mr. Hoskins. We have heard that Mr. Hoskins's hat and watch were taken by the assassins.

Since writing the above we have been informed that Surgeon Thwaites has repaired to Newcastle to attend Mr. Hoskins, who was alive but in a very dangerous way at six o'clock this morning.

If we receive further particulars of this most diabolical outrage, we shall give them in a second edition.
