barkation. ' will, however, depend al of the royal squadron, which lay esterd v off Newhaven. g of England will visit the field of ers of Scotland have addressed the ing that Hollyrood House may be where he was expected to embark on the Continent. The precise time its former state and splendonr. a lievgate, Cox and Waithman, are for the office of Lord Mayor. ert Wilson has written to his Royal he Commander-in-Chief to desire an to his conduct before a competent ription has commenced for purchasing to Sir R. Wilson. The first in the --- £500, the second A £500." ert Wilson was thirty years in the e has a large family.

avy rain last night rendered several liamentary Commissioners of Enquiry he metropolis, totally impassible.

UBLIN, SEITEMBER 29.

their office, No. 10, Grenville-St. nent intend that the Staffs of the siments should in future be employed er with the regular troops or as PTS. unty Louth have addressed Lord s advancement to the legrage. Grace, Esq. is to be Portrieve of hilkenny. illicit still and worm were seized at wn, on Saturday. al and singular Revolution of the allar to that of the Moving Bog, has in Connemara, County Galway. of a Letter from Drogheda, dated 23: - " His Majesty's late Visit to kely to prove heneficial in more ways What think you of a union between --- son of an English Earl; and er of a very respectable person in this town? She is both young and I will not disgrace the situation good thrown in her way. In my opinion, to resort to the merchant's store, than for a wife. We are all delighted at DUNTY OF LIMERICK.

TING AT OCTOBER SESSIONS. is broke given, that the Grand Jury at last a bis ordered a Special Sessions to be held at Court-House, Limerick, on Thursday, the 25th 1, for the purpose of allowing Presentments to for which were not finished to time for the cous to Summet Assizes, 1821, agreeable to Cap 54 If persons intending to account for Presentments es, must couse a Notice of their intention of acrested at the mand place for posting Vorgesis a which the Work proposed to be accounted t, tet een a the hears of may and twelse o'Clock non, to Sourtis, the idea of October per-r Notice must be looged in the Office of the Secretary, No. 80, Unper George's Street, on

thr. -Tarpersons posing or lodging the Notimurder has been sent us: About two o'clock at noon on Friday, Corneal went to the house of John Fitzgerald, of Ballyvogue, to collect name of Thomas Frizgerald as sien money promised to be paid to the Rev. Francis him in two mooths after the circulas sked Fitzgerald the name of the Langford, by whom he was deputed; Corneal corn beny? Fr zgerald was not able was accompanied by his son, a lad of 13 years of age. On entering the house, he found that the corn was winnowing, and preparing for market, and upon the solicitation of the persons in the house, Corneal desired his son to return louis. to Mr. Langford, and ask him would be give further time for the payment: the boy returned about five o'clock, in company with a labourer of Mr. Langford's, of the name of Naughtin, and on entering Fitzgerald's house, no trace whatever of Corneal could be found. The next day, several marks of blood were observed both

The hody of John Corneal, who was so inhumanly murdered near Pallas-Kenry, as stated in our last, is not yet found, though the most diligent search has been made for it - the following further particulars of that barbarous namacky, and succeeded in getting two muskets and a pair of pistols -- they also attacked the dwelling of the Rev. Edward Grimes, Rector of Ballingarry, convenient to that village, and we

A number of villains entered the house of George Leake, Esq. at the Abbey, in the town of Rathkeale, on Thursday evening, at the early hour of seven o'clock, and robbed it of several stand of arms; Mr. Leake was from home, or the fellows would have met with a warm

Mr. Bateman, of Elm-grove, Co. Kerry, was barbarously murdered, between Abbeyfeale and Fort, by some ruffians, who shot four balls through his body, which instantaneously caused feale, and his arms taken from him.

On Monday evening last, the Land Bailiff of hear, obtained a mu-ket and a sword.

reception.

his death.

taken from him.

inside and outside the door, and particularly among some straw which lay in an inner room. This was attempted to be accounted for by some women, who said that a goose had been killed during the day; but a very young child of Fitzgerald's, said to the persons who were enquiring for Corneal that her father had killed him with a hatchet. Neither Firzgerald, or a second person who was there on his entry, can since he heard of. Mr. Waller, Colonel Westropp, Mr. Fitzgerald, Rev. Mr. Langford, Rev. Mr. Westropp, and the other gentlemen of that neigh-

Since writing the above, a man named Bowman, has been sent in to jail, charged with the crime.

her head, have been indefatigable in their pursuit after the suspected perpetrators of this mysterious murder.

to (if my) before you came to this co On the same evening, O'Brien, one of Mr. Solicitor and Converancer. Then, Sir, that's not so had as an Going's Policemen, was attacked near Abbeverough)? Witness... They are a di England : parer in principles, bette Last week, another of Mr., Going's Police connected; have better associations, was attacked by six men, on the road from to touth and justice. Then, Sir, truth and justice is the Newcastle to Abbeyfeale, dragged on his back give me leave to ask von, what A a considerable way on the road, and his arms you that the effect in your cost wa fired the shot at me."

Major Suiliann and sof - He never prised at any thing done in the Count The County is even with you, by anything done by you. Witness said, that the prisoner wa and knew his person, but did not reco bever gave prisoner arms whilst o witness's retuin after his encounter person by met was Barrett, the gard in the scullery at the time; withe ciently the features of prisoner at the Bess recognised the assessin as a perso dropped his hands and exclaimed t friend, what can be your object?

murder me?" Witness knowing pri Inhouser in his employment, then said come, let us talk about the affair."

shew as if inclined to follow witness came placed; he turned himself to him, drew out his retal again, us if somer then retreated with his face tot off rapidly and jumped over the wal may thing that you are not positive the percent with lived at you, pornt hi took the wand, and facing the doct head, saying, " I most solemaly swe

Give me leave to ask you what p

Cross-examined by Mr

Mr. Goold-Now, Mr. Hoskins, y prisoner: take that want and look a went towards the factle.

till he looked over the workmens' b to be M Cormick, who was immedia into the Castle-vard with nibers. Did you look at McCormick, so Looked at a mass of persons togethe Lask you, on your oath, did you recognise him as the person who fi passed, and said, just the question as lask you, on your oath, did y question? - (Mr. O'Concell put t Witness said, it was to form a judy for bim ; selfort goes among the tab Court. - Mr. Hoskins, you are not tion; did you look at M. Cormick? mass of persons together.

Mr. O'Connell - When did you him; was not MC renick twentydeprised of his liberty," agril you we him? - He was put in, with others, to examine him.

Then, Sir. let me tell you, that in the eyes of the law, not to be u I berry, as Alexander Hockins, Witness said, be was afterwards found not to be the pe son ; M-Corm in gami, and to go to fundrick, as it bringing the right man forward.

Ave, by was so greteful in you

Witnessaid not recollect saying, bita ! - I gave bee employment.

Gerald, that M'Cormick was very every side of him ; took Mittorinica sint was fired; examined the in-M. Corinick's in the ground by examined him. Now, Sir, screw yourself up

Fitzgerald, who has abscorded, is about forty On M'Cormick's returning from years of age, dark countenance, but it present