

WILSON'S... The Gazette of this evening contains a number of military promotions and retirements, chiefly resulting from the great reduction in the army...

LIMERICK, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 7. On Sunday last, between one and two o'clock, while Robert Langford, Esq. was at Church, his house at Greenpark, near this City, was surrounded by a great number of persons...

On Thursday evening, about the hour of six o'clock, the house of Mr. Hatch on the Rock road, was entered by the parlour window, and a pier glass was carried off, whilst Mr. Hatch was at dinner in another apartment...

On Monday night, between the hours of eight and nine o'clock, the Dunmanway Mills, property of Henry H. Jagoe, Esq. were broken into, and cash and bank-notes to the amount of £3000 carried off...

On Monday, the 22d ult. a meeting took place at the church-yard of Conuscart, County of Roscommon, between Hugh Kelly, Esq. of Woodmount, and Hugh Dillon, attended by Killikelly, and Councillor Dillon...

A few days ago a man of the name of Murphy, who came to this country from Dublin, as an Assignee in a case of Bankruptcy, proceeded to the Bankrupt's house about five miles from this town...

An account of a most serious nature has reached us, that of a meditated attack on the life of an industrious mechanic, a native of Scotland, and a blacksmith by trade...

We are inclined to suspect that the tumultuary spirit in the County Limerick, is rather restrained than subdued. Our opinion is confirmed by the perusal of a letter, which was received in town this morning...

The following robberies have also taken place in the neighbourhood of Bruff, and several night passes that armed parties, mounted on horseback, have been taken...

On Sunday morning, about the hour of six o'clock, the house of Mr. Hunt, Esq., was attacked by about thirty ruffians, who broke into it; having found the parlour-door locked, they tried the pannels of it, and to the number of five or six, they were unable to get in...