

Sir Robert Meads sailed yesterday from the coast of Africa; s 26, Captain Coe, for the Cape and the East Indies. Captain who served as Astronomer with goes out in the Iphigenia for the nautical observations on the; and Captain Clavering, to join The Bann, Driver, and Fly, are coast of Africa.

er, of 74 guns, the flag-ship at paid off at Plymouth, and then here as guard-ship. Captain Sir is appointed to the command.

the Semiramis frigate, Captain fitted as a flag and guard-ship, the next three years (instead of le-ship, Tonnant), went out of with Lord Colville's flag flying, ship embarked on the following to proceed to his command, but prevented him. The Phaton, A. Montagu, will proceed from outh, to be docked.

the Hon. Sir Charles Paget pendant and the Royal George the season, she having been pre- tted for that purpose, Sir Charles is seat, Fair Oak, Hants.

on, Captain Mingay, will sail, id is fair, from Portsmouth for £5,000 in silver, for the dock- erumerary seamen for the ships

James Saumarez is appointed Vice England, in the room of the late ough; and the Earl of Northesk, mmand in the action off Trafalgar, urvivor, is appointed Rear Admi- l, in the room of Sir J. Saumarez.

Report on the tea trade with the id China has been printed. It Committee are inclined to the regulations might be established which, without interfering with of the East India Company, the ut might be safely admitted to a of the tea trade.

ew cause why a criminal informa- at be filed against Mr. Williams, t a Durham Newspaper, was In Scarlett, in the Court of King's arday, for a libel on the Established ained in some gross observations hat Paper, on the death of the The learned Counsel stated, that ch libels were suffered to go was impossible that any respect for our Clergy could exist.

ding the recent heavy sentence on arlife, another female member of atuated family has already taken the "Temple of Reason," and as same works is continued without ust of course, shortly fall a vic- st indignation of the law. Mary etremains a prisoner in the Bench; for her commitment was last night the gaoler, she will this evening be r final destination at Dorchester, ch-blasphemer, and his wife, are ed but they will not be permitted to with each other.

s of the late Musical Festival at of the funds for the support of amounted to £1,856.

LLIN, NOVEMBER 22.

a report prevalent for the last two ecret Society had been discovered nd that five of its members had hile engaged in deliberation in a Monday. We have made inquiry a circumstance, and we have ast information had been given to uthority, of such a nature, as to jus- ty of the persons, and the seizure s;---but, we are happy at being hat, on an investigation of the af- ed, that the Society was totally with any political object whatso- at the Members, who had been t study, were merely regulating, at pecuniary concerns of a Tontine persons were then discharged by es.---Correspondent.

Lieutenant is at present on a visit Bruen, in the County Carlow.

Colonel Bruen, with a number of the County, attended his Excel- Talbot, in coursing the demesne.

The oldest Sportsmen on the edged that they never enjoyed such ment: the weather was delightful, y bounds excellent. There were logs belonging to the Earl Talbot, l superior sport.

merous Meeting of the Church- Deputies took place yesterday by the Post-Office Tavern, when mine that the following Requisi- ally presented by the different parishes, he undersigned the Lord Mayor:--- request your Lord-

ORREL AND CANNELL COALS.
WILLIAM ERSON,
 WILL commence selling on TUESDAY next, out of the Eliza, Captain Pitts, lying at the Custom House Quay, about Seventy Ton of the above Coals, which he engages to be of the very best description, and fresh from the Pitts.
 He daily expects the Eliza, Captain Wall, the Mary and Hope, with about 400 of Orrel and Liverpool Coals, which he will sell at a fair price.
 24, George's Street, Limerick, November 24.

IMPERIAL FIRE & LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, LONDON.

JOSEPH FISHER,
 HAVING been appointed Agent to the above Company, for Limerick, and its vicinity, solicits the orders of such persons as may have occasion to effect Insurances against Fire, or on Lives, which are to be left in writing at his Office, in Cornwalis-street, Corner of Upper-William-street, where they will meet immediate attention, and where the conditions and terms may be seen.
 Limerick, 24th of 11th mo. 1821.

MEMEL TIMBER, MAHOGANY, NEW HOPS, &c. &c.

J. N. RUSSELL,
 Has just landed from Memel, a supply of superior MEMEL TIMBER, PLANK, AND LATHWOOD.
 HE HAS ALSO FOR SALE,
 Malaga Lemons in Half Chests; Muscatel, Bunch, Bloom and Sun Raisins, in Boxes, Half Boxes at 12lb and Barrels; Tobacco, Russia Tallow, Pot Ashes; Orrel, House, and Smiths' Coal; Seale Sugars; Spanish, Red, and Bucellas Wine; Bristol Bottles, Window Glass, New Hops in Pockets, Clean Hemp, Oak Bark, Mahogany in Log and Plank; Oak, Beech, and Black Birch; Norway Deals of all kinds; Laths, Spars, and Tiles; Quebec and United States Staves, &c. &c. &c.

Insurances on Lives and against Fire as usual effected at this Office, for THE WESTMINSTER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, AND THE BRITISH AND IRISH UNITED COMPANY.
 A liberal allowance will be paid to Agents effecting Life Insurances.
 November 24.

FASHIONABLE AND EXTENSIVE WOOLLEN DRAPERY, MEN'S MERCERY, AND HAT WARE-HOUSE.
 &c. &c. &c.
 No. 130, GEORGE'S-STREET, LIMERICK.

John Hogan, James,
 RESPECTFULLY informs his Friends and the Public, that he has this week arrived to him a general assortment of every article in the above lines, of very superior qualities, which, from the present reduction in prices, is well worth the attention of the Public, and will be sold without reserve, at considerably reduced prices, for money or approved bills.
 Limerick, November 24, 1821.

FASHIONABLE WINTER ASSORTMENTS,
 Arrived at No. 33, Patrick-street, Limerick.

E. FENNESSY,
 BEGS to acquaint her Friends and the Public, that she has just returned from Dublin, with a Large and Fashionable assortment of every article in her line, consisting of Tabinets, Velvets, Sa-snets and Sittins.
 Figured and Plain Lustrings.
 Prinnettas, Norrige Crapes and Washing Sarsnets.
 Brigante, and Erminett Shawls, Scarfs and Dresses.
 Plain and Printed Bombazines, Italian Netts and Morin Crapes.
 Tissue, Cashmere and Rockspan Shawls, Scarfs and Handkerchiefs.
 Plain Figured Twilled and Printed Stuffs.
 Mourning articles of all descriptions.
 London China Robes, Mustins and Flouncings.
 Plain and Printed Calicoes and Mustins.
 Muffs, Toppids and Peleries.
 Flouncing and Trimming Furs of every description.
 Ribbons of all Descriptions.
 Black and White Lace Scarfs, Dresses, Shawls, Veils and Handkerchiefs.
 Plain and Figured Thread Netts and Laces.
 Sabel and Sealskin Caps of every description.
 Fancy Trimmings, Feathers, Flowers, &c. &c.
 Ladies' and Gentlemen's best London Beaver Hats and Bonnets of the newest shape.
 Nov. 24, 1821.

AUCTION OF FURNITURE,
 &c. &c. &c.
 On MONDAY next, the 26th Inst. AT THE HOUSE No. 34, GEORGE'S STREET, (Opposite the Limerick Institution)

THE FURNITURE consists of Drawing-Room and Parlour Chairs, Tables, Looking-Glasses, Side-Board, Beds and Bedding, Carpets, an Excellent Clock, Mangle, with some useful Articles of Kitchen Furniture, &c. &c. Also, some Grocery Utensils, Coffee Mills, Cannisters, empty Hhds. and other Vessels, Half-hundred and small Metal Weights, Large and small Beams and Scales, Desks, Bin, &c. &c. with Four or Five cwt. of Ground Paints.
 Sale to commence at 12 o'clock
 The Purchaser pays the Auction Duty.
 And on Tuesday next, the 27th instant, at said House, at two o'clock, the Interest in Sundry small Tenements, Yards, and a Store with three Lofts, situate in the Irish Town.—Any information respecting these Premises may be had, on application as above.
 THOMAS SEYMOUR, Auctioneer.
 The Lodgings of said House, TO BE LET. Unfurnished, which are very convenient, and immediate possession can be given.
 Limerick, November 24, 1821.

GOVERNESS.
 WANTED by a Family in the Country, a Governess for Four Children, who can teach Writing, French, and English, Grammatically.
 None but a Protestant need apply.—Enquire at the Limerick Chronicle-Office.
 November 24.

ESTATE OF MESSRS. ROCHE, CORK. COURT OF CHANCERY.

TUESDAY, NOV. 20, 1821.
 In the matter of Stephen & James Roche, Esqrs. Bankrupts.

Mr. Jackson, on behalf of Martin Mahony, Esq. a Creditor, moved the Court that the Commission of Bankrupt which issued in this matter might be superseded, on the ground that it had been issued by Robert Barry, Esq. the Petitioning Creditor, at the instance of the Bankrupts; and he cited the case of expart Staff in the matter of Saunders 1st Buck 249 and 431, where Lord Eldon, upon an appeal from the Vice Chancellor, superseded a Commission upon a similar ground.

This application was supported by Messrs. Grady, Townsend and Warren, on behalf of the Assignees, four of whom made an affidavit, in which they stated that they conceived it would be for the benefit of the Estate to have the opinion of the Court on the validity of the present, or the necessity of issuing a new Commission.

Mr. Plunkett and Serjeant Lefroy, for the Bankrupts; the Solicitor General for Mr. Barry, the Petitioning Creditor; Mr. Henchy, on behalf of Mr. Swiney, and Mr. Franks on the part of Mr. Johnson the Agents to the Commission, opposed the application.

Chancellor—"Let the petition be refused, and all the parties, with the exception of the Assignees, have their costs against Mr. Mahony, the petitioner."

A Meeting was held on Tuesday at the Bankrupt-Room, Commercial Buildings, Cork, pursuant to public advertisement, John Cotter, jun. Esq. in the Chair.

Mr. Casey, Agent to the Assignees, stated that the Meeting had been called for the purpose of putting the Creditors in possession of what had been done by the Assignees, and of the general complexion of the estate, for the purpose of removing some unfounded and malicious insinuations that had been propagated by interested persons, to the effect that the estate had been, and was wasting, in heavy and unnecessary litigation. Mr. Casey went on to state, that the Assignees who had been thus calumniated, would have, before the first of next May, an available sum exceeding £20,000, at their disposal, which would enable them to make a dividend of 3s. 4d. in the pound, even supposing that the sum proved on the estate at that time amounted to £120,000, though up to the present period it did not exceed £90,000. A further sum of £20,000 there was every reason to hope, would accrue in two years more, thus holding out the expectation of from 6s. to 7s. in the Pound, even supposing the debts proved to amount to £140,000.

LIMERICK, SATURDAY, NOV. 24.

The Country Mails of this morning, have furnished us with the following particulars, which in all instances are received from unquestionable sources:---

On Thursday night last, at eleven o'clock, the house of Edmund Hinchy, Wood-ranger to the Countess Dowager of Ormond, at Ballynacourty, near Kilfinan, was assailed by six armed men, who, in a most peremptory manner, demanded his arms - he declared he had none, but those belonging to Lady Ormond, which he would surrender only with his life. On this, they fired into the house, and were very near shooting his wife, who was in her confinement. He returned the fire, on which they departed, but returned in about two hours, with an increased party, and again demanded his arms, when he gave the same answer as before. They then attacked the door with a sledge, and fired in through the window-shutters. Hinchy returned the fire, when they went to the rere of the house with crow-bars and sledges, to make an inlet there, while another party fired occasional shots through the doors and windows. Hinchy still continued firing, and, after some time, they thought fit to depart, asking him for 2s. 6d. to buy powder, which he also refused.

On Sunday, as a party of the Dragoons passing through Kildorrery to Kilmallock, were refreshing themselves at the former village, two of their Carabines and one Sword were taken from the Car.

The same night, a large party traversed from Kildorrery into this County, and broke open nine or ten houses, between Red-Chair and Castle-Oliver, in two of which they got arms, and swore the inhabitants of the other houses as to the place where their arms were concealed, and where they knew any others to be.

Another party also attacked the farm houses of Ballintubber for arms, but did not succeed in getting any there.

On Sunday night, a large party also paraded through Cush and Ballinavana, firing shots and sounding horns; the Kilfinan Police, ten in number, heard them but were not of sufficient force to pursue them.

On Tuesday night, though nine Magistrates and Major Wilcocks had met at Elton that day.

MURDER OF MAJOR COLLIS, NEAR TRALEE.

On Thursday night, the house of Major Collis, within a mile and a-half of Tralee, was entered by a large party, and robbed of every article which the villains could lay hands on. Not content, the murdering gang struck Major Collis a blow of a gun on the head, which deprived him of life! and afterwards fired some shots into his body.

The house of the Rev. Edward Nash was also attacked on the same night, but the fellow were beat off, as he had arms and assistance in the house. Mr. Nash was reported to be wounded in the breast. Our correspondent concludes his letter by stating, that "God only knows where this business will end."

DREADFUL IMMOLATION.
 (From the Clonmel Herald.)

We can scarcely recollect an incident of more horrible atrocity since the burning of Scullabogue in the last Irish Rebellion, than that which occurred on Monday night, at or near "The Seven Acres," a Farm so-called, between Thorney Bridge and Cloneen, at the Foot of Slievenaman, in the Co. Tipperary. The place was the residence of a better kind of farmer named Shea, who had recently put out some under-tenants, at will, as they are called, who hold without lease, by Civil Bill process, and had possessed himself of their lands. For this, he was served with a notice, that, unless he restored the old occupants, he should suffer for it; and being determined to preserve his property, and to resist the attack with which he was menaced, he provided himself with fire arms, in sufficient number for good defence, and got into his house two or three neighbours, of resolute character, for his assistance. These precautions, it seems, were fatally rendered useless, for, at a late hour on Monday night, he and his numerous family, consisting in all of eighteen, men, women, and children, found the dwelling-house in flames around them. Shea, the owner, appears to have been the first to burst out on his assailants, but was instantly shot, and thrown back into the flames; another making a similar attempt shared the same fate; and, before the murderers departed, every Soul in the House was burned to death! This is the pith and marrow, as far as we can learn it from an eye-witness of the ruins, who has taken out Mr. Thompson, the Coroner, to hold an Inquest on the bodies. The conflagration, which continued until a late hour on Tuesday morning, was seen in various directions, at a long distance; and one Gentleman, asking a countryman, whom he met on the road, two or three miles from the place, what could occasion such a fire, was answered with perfect sang froid, "Nothing, I suppose, but satisfaction they are taking for the poor people that was turned out of their houses to other day." We acknowledge, without shame, that in the moment of this diabolical excess of savage ferocity being reported to us, we do not see what help language can afford, not to aggravate, but to paint the horror of such a sanguinary glut upon a number so large, and of whom so many, even in the eyes of these savages, must have been entirely free of any possible participation in Shea's assertion of his property—five or six are represented to us as children of the tenderest years; three or, as some say, four, were friends joining him for his protection—all the rest were servants—and all mingled in one indiscriminate slaughter, of the most hellish character, because the owner of the land thought himself entitled to use the property that he paid for, and refused submission to the legislation of midnight assassins.

From the Clonmel Advertiser.

It is with feelings of the deepest horror we have to state, that on Monday night, or early on Tuesday morning, the house of Mr. Edmund Shea, an opulent farmer at Gurtneapish, near Cloneen, between Fethard and Mullinahone, in the barony of Middlethird, Co. Tipperary, and at the north-west foot of Slievenaman Mountain, was destroyed by fire, with Edmund Shea, his wife (who was supposed to have lain in that unhappy night of an infant) five children, a fine young woman who had been on a visit at the house, five labouring men, and three servant maids!!!

We speak of the above as matter of fact, communicated to us by an eye-witness, who saw the bodies on Tuesday at noon; he represented them as having scarcely the resemblance of the human form, but seemed rather like lumps of bog wood, as they lay near the door almost in a cluster, intermixed with the ashes of the burnt thatch.

It had been mentioned in town throughout the whole of yesterday, that nineteen persons suffered, viz. that Edmund Shea was shot by banditti, in attempting to escape from the house, and 18 others perished in the flames; but as it appears there is yet no evidence of this, it is mere matter of uncertainty, and we trust somewhat exaggerated.

Though we are desirous of confining ourselves as much as possible to matter of fact, independent of loose or idle conjecture, or hearsay, it is just we should mention that several of the