having succeeded in breaking in, Murphy, and beat him so cruelly, that in a short time they deprived after which, they nearly severed om his body with a bill-hook. The igned for this atrocious outrage is, ly prosecuted two persons who had p from him, and who were convicted nce at the last Assizes.

ursday night, the houses of John atrick Hayes, and Mathew M'Namara, , in the North Liberties of this City, the County of Clare, were attacked number of persons, who took from e a gun. They also searched other the same neighbourhood.

Dublin Mail for Galway, which also ssengers for the County Mayo, was e Inn at Athlone, on Sunday morning horses ran off at a furious rate, me perfectly unmanageable. The the coach came against the battlement sidge of Athlone, which was deeply by them for a considerable distance. which, if it had taken place upon must have been attended with most le consequences, was providentially until the vehicle had got completely when it was shivered to pieces. The guard and driver, have suffered in ht degree; but their lives and limbs miraculously preserved.

chard Winters, Revenue Officer, at was drowned whilst on duty, a few , in the river near that town.

authorised to state, that the stabling by the Police at Tipperary, was ily set fire to and consumed, and not lly, as heretofore stated, and that Mr. the proprietor, intends applying for a ent at the next Assizes for the damage ten notice was posted on the Chapel lockhill, near Brury, on Sunday last, s immediately torn down by the Rev. evan; it cautioned all persons from ents and particularly not a fraction to the Rev. Mr. Bevan for Tythes --- no to attempt destraining cattle or goods if they do, they are to suffer the lajor Going .--- It also commanded Mr. teturn the sledge to William Kelly, lleviate* from his promise made the ras visited.

mise was to supply them with powder and which was given them, and the remainder is Drought, appointed to command the der the Peace Preservation Act for ad Liberties, arrived here yesterday; lett, late of the 82d, is appointed his and Mr. Dames, Chief Constable.

Varburton, commanding the County ice, has moved his head-quarters to Kilrush, where his departure is most and deeply regretted by the inhabi-ff of the City of Cork Militia are Kanturk, the South Cork to Buttehe North Cork to Mallow.

rl Mount Charles, M. P. arrived here from Dublin, and set off for Ennis. ed that the County of Clare Militia thwith embodied.

eld Officers of the 79th Regiment, in this Garrison, have received the n of the Peace for the County at large. indon Gazette of Saturday, contains otion of our respected townsman, ichael Creagh, to the Majority of the nent-during the war we had frequent o notice the conduct of this distinof Sir Francis Burdett is appointed pany in the 79th Highlanders. erl of Portarlington, late of the 23d agoons, has re-entered the army as the 86th Regiment.

th Regiment embarked on board the ion, Thomas and Mary, and Fanny, on Wednesday, and sailed for Plyetachments from the Isle of Wight Portsmouth the same day, to do the the garrison. The 84th Regiment, at Plymouth, is ordered to Cork. id division of the 3d Guards arrived outh on Wednesday, and have since atham.

isional battalion of 500 men, under lelvert, has been formed from the bany Barracks, and landed at Portsassist in doing the duty of the garid of the 15th Regiment, which has or Plymouth. ylden and Lieutenants George Lewis rd, of the Royal Engineers, are

Sir J. P Beresford, Bart. is appointed r-in-Chief on the Leith station, in Gibraltar.

f Admiral Otway, whose period of xpired.

imarez, is appointed Vice Admiral vice Sir W. Young.

meddle in any affairs of the Country either Civil or Military; they have but one business, namely, to Preach the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour JESUS CHRIST-this, and this alone they do. I presume that it is through great ignorance of the motives and principles of those harmless men that any persons would attempt to do them an injury, for they injure no man-their sole employment is to watch over and labour among their own flock, attending to their religious duties alone. - I am, Gantlemen, &c. &c.

All our country letters agree on one point, that there is no such thing as getting rents from the peasantry.

Mr. Johnstone Chambers obtained the first place at the late entrance examination in Trinity College.

The next Quarterly Examinations of Trinity College, Dublin, will be held on the 21st and 22d of January next, for the Class of Senior Sophisters. On the 24th and 25th, for that of Junior Sophisters. On the 28th and 29th, for Senior Freshmen; and, on Thursday and Friday following, for the Class of Junior Fresh-

The Southworth Sampson transport, with convicts from the Jails in Ireland, sailed from the Cove of Cork on Thursday, for Botany Bay.

The great pugilistic battle between Reynolds and Dogherty was decided on Tuesday, at Bottle-hill, near Cork, in which the former was victorious. There were 34 rounds. Upwards of 20,000 persons were present. The battle was for 100 guineas aside, and the bets depending on it were most considerable.

The Ash-hill Fox hounds will draw Milltown-Castle Covers, Ardglass and Jachill Woods, and Barna Glens, on Monday next.

There will be a Sessions held at Galbally on Wednesday next for Registering Freeholders.

We understand that the Members of that excellent Institution, the Limerick Benevolent Society of Saint Andrew, will hold their first Anniversary Meeting, on Friday next, being Saint Andrew's Day, which occasion will be celebrated by a dinner at Moriarty's. Alderman Watson, on Thursday last, received from Mrs. Maunsell, of No. 41, George's street, Two Pounds, for the use of the poor in the House of Industry. The number of applicants, (who never were beggars,) have increased the inmates in that asylum to nearly 400.

The Treasurer of the United Schools Charlotte's-quay, acknowledges the receipt of £1 1s. 8d. from William Waller, Esq. per Henry O'Sullivan, Esq.

3. Fitz-Gibbon, Esq. of a daughter.

In Cork, the Lady of the Rev. R. L. Conner, of a At Glanmire, the Lady of Doctor Ellis, of a daughter.

At Sharpham, Devonshire, the Lady of John Bastard, Esq. M. P. Captain in the Royal Navy, of a son. At Newport, Isle of Wight, the Lady of Captain Melville, of the 68th Light Infantry, of a son. At Tamerton, the Lady of Lieut. Brown, of a daughter. The Lady of the Rev. John Fish, of a daughter.

In Dublin, the Lady of Godwin Swift, Esq. of a son. At Madras, the Lady of Lieut.-Colonel Foulis, of the Madras Cavairy, of a son. MARRIAGES.

On Wednesday, in Dublin, by the Rev. Doctor Ryan, P. P. of Booterstown, Terence Dolan, Esq. of Mount-Pleasent, to Mrs. Anne Conway, of Dundrum Cottage, only surviving daughter of the late John M'Mahon, Esq. of Dublin, and sister to Charles M'Mahon, Esq. of Blennerville, Henry Fortune, Esq. second son of the late James Fortune, Esq. of Cork, to Eliza, third daughter of Spencer Mr. Walter Morrisy, to Miss Anne Delahunty, both of

Waterford. In Cork, George Devereux, Esq. to Mary, youngest daughter of the late Rev. Fitzgerald Tisdall. In Cork, Thomas Coleman, Esq. Captain in the 81st Regiment, to Mary, daughter of the late Thomas Morton, Esq. of said City.

On the 5th inst. in Westphalia, his Serene Highness the Duke de Croy, Prince of the Empire, Peer of France. and Grandee of Spain, to Miss Maria Dillon, daughter of the Hon Colonel Henry Dillon, and first Cousin of the present Viscount Dillon.

Thomas Magrath, Esq of Claret Lodge, Co. Louth, to Margaret, daughter of William Benison, Esq. Henry Boiders, Esq. of London, to the daughter of William Christie, Esq.

In George's-street, Cork, Miss Elizabeth Boland.

At Abadown, Co. Cork, in the 12th year of his age, Heary, only son of Henry Becher, Esq. Mr. Thomas Harricks, aged 19, son of the late William Harricks, of Onagh, County Wicklow, Esq. In Buttevant, Mr. John Daly, post-master of that town.

Iu Ennis, Charles Stackpoole, Esq-Mr. Henry Greeneand Mrs Lysaght, wife of Mr. Charles Lysaght. In Williamstown, aged 16 years, Eliza Charlotte, second daughter of Mr. Caldwell, of Inns-quay, Dublin. At Enniscorthy, William Davis, Esq. one of the Society

In Athlone, Anthony Fox, Esq. an old and respectable merchant of that town. At Reading, the Rev. Thomas Arnold, of Walworth.

At Fuge House, pear Dartmouth, suddenly, aged 75 years, Charles Hayne, Esq. Lieut.-Colonel of the North Devon Militia, and father of that corps.

Of apoplexy, at his house in James's-street. Buckingham-old, although dull in sale, supported last Monday's prices, but all other descriptions were exceedingly heavy sale, and nearly nominal. Fine bright malting Barley being sg. supported last week's prices; but the ordinary tinue heavy in sale, and rather cheaper. The hos. O'Connell; owing to a short supply, is rather brisk at last wehn O'Connell, and Beans and Peas fully maintain Flour there is no will maintain our last quotic Grath, FAIRS IN THE ENSUING Wigh Ashton, Joseph Villiam Flour there is no alteration.

County Limerick-Monday, 26th, November, Angles-mes R. burrow and Brury; Wednesday, Bruff; Friday, Court and Currabeen.

County Cork-Monlay, Dunmanway; Tuesday, Kildorary; Thursday, Liscarroll; Friday, Glanworth; Saturday, Bantry and Mill-street.

County Kerry-Friday, Ballybeige; Saturday, Ballycleave and Montanagee.

County Clare-Monday, Bridgetown and Jasperspound; Friday, Doonass, two days; Saturday, Ballyket. County Galway-Wednesday, Mountshauson; Saturday, Aughrimlands.

County Tipperary - Tuesday, Borrisoleigh; Wednesday, Williamstown; Thursday, Roscrea; Saturday, Clough-

County Waterford-Friday, Mountaincastle. County Kilkenny-Fiddown.

IRISH STOCKS-Gov. Deb. 31 per Ct. 865; Gov. Stock, 31 per Cent. 861; Gov. Deb. 5 per Cent. 1093; Gov. Stock, 5 per Cent. 1093; Grand Canal Loan, 6 per Ct. 74; Royal Canal Stock, -; Bank Stock, 239.

Exchange - Dublin on London - 711.

THE Magistrates and Gentfemen of the Barony of Burratty are requested to meet at Mrs. Sargent's Inn, Newmarket, on Monday, the 26th Instant. will to move from the

ON THE BANK OF PUGET, BAINBRIDGE & Co. TO BE HAD OF

G. MAHON

THO has, at the su gestion of Friends, opened a Correspondence with that most respectable House, and the Public will find every facility at his Office in negociating Remittane's, Bills and Receipts, to and from

ORDERS for the Purchase and Sale of Debentures and Stock, in the Irish and English Funds, will be executed by him in the manner which has hitherto afforded much satisfact ion. 109, George's-street, Limerick, November 24. fute ppearen, in the action probed periother and her assistant robed

un y extravagance of fashionable EXTENSIVE WINTER ASSORTMENT ARRIVED AT THE

At Ballyseedy House, on Thursday, the Lady of Thomas WOOLLEN, LINEN, MUSLIN, HOSIERY HAT, AND FANCY WARE-HOUSE, 32, PATRICK-STREET.

MATHEW RYAN

well-selected Assortment of Goods, suited to the present to the platform of the Altar, and the Present Season and Fashion, viz.:—

West of England Superfine. and her attendants having genullected, the nony of Reception began with the prepara-Prayers and Responsories. When the Nowas seated and the Celebrant re-conducted he Faldastorium, High Mass commenced n peculiar dignity, and with a strict precisi-

West of England Superfine, Refine, and Livery Cloths, Cassimeres, of the newest shades, Fancy Waistcoatings and Florentines, Russia Beavers, Napps, Coatings, and Kerseys, Cords, Velveteens, Barragons, and Fustians, Genuine Water-proof Camblet for Gentlemens' Cloaks, Bombazeens, Lustres, Figured and Plain Stuffs, Cashmere, Sealskin, and Cloth Shawls, Furs, Trimmings, Ribbons, and Handkerchiefs,

Linens, Lawns, Cambricks, and Muslins, Silk, Woollen, and Cotton Hosiery, Welch and Irish Flannels, Pelisse, Habit, and Gown Cloths,

With a variety of Napps and Beavers for Ladies' Cloaks. WRIGHT'S SUPERIOR IRISH HATS, They daily expect, per the Regent Packet, from London, Three Cases of the new improved OVAL HATS, of superior

RYAN & SON beg particularly to recommend their Superfine Cloths and Cassimeres, as they are of a superior quality, and will be engaged West of England.

As every encouragement will be given for CASH, Puren, chasers will find a considerable reduction, as they ar determined to sell at the lowest possible prices,

N. B. - Furerals supplied at the shortest notice, and anity Limerick, Nov. 24, 19re unanieconomy.

Cellebrant, she was clear and decisive; like on iemen assembly beg leave wledgments to utenaut, for his late request, by Sturbed Districts

Pection, an additional MES O'BRIEN, Army Clothier and the command of the maker, King's Arms, 17. Tucker See the command no less maker, King's Arms, 17, Tuckey-Stre leave to inform Officers commanding Regir , a General no less is as usual supplied with averaging Regir , a soldier than from is as usual supplied with every article t of a soldier than the necessary for Home and Foreign Sarrice. necessary for Home and Foreign Service. an, under whose firm, O'BRIEN having Equipped almost again, and we entertain

O'BRIEN having Equipped almost every conduct, we entertain left the Port of Cork, for the last Eighteen that the present dissibilities that the present disflattering testimonals of appropriation. flattering test imonals of appropriation, friul to this once peaceful commanding Officers, now begs to state the present that Commanding Officers, now begs to state that Standard be presented this Kingdom, can possibly supply or ctually suppressed humbly moderate terms, and therefore hopes to hat a Memorial be presented for the will receive a continuance of the

of that triumvirate of profound scholars which has adorned our own immediate times.

At Edinburgh, Mr. Murray, late of Covent-Garden Theatre. He was the son of Sir John Murray, Bart. of Broughton, Secretary to Charles Edward the Pretender, in the rebellion of 1745.

At Castletown, Queen's County, aged 82 years, Alexander lite-Gerald, Esq.

Suddenly, on Wednesday morning, at Hampstead, John allars, Esq. former ly an eminent Brewer in Cork.

Will receive a continuance of that pay the Lord Lieutenant, for the beretton hopes wind a Memorial at the sestowed.

Government will not peace of the Provisions of the beretton hopes will receive a continuance of that pay the Lord Lieutenant, for the Peace of the Captains of Yeomany Corps.

Government will not peace of the Provisions of the beretton of the continuance of that pay the Lord Lieutenant, humbly thyriction of no mean superluciate the sister lood of the beretton of t

ARY next, on the may be placed, or within those stations the best Quality; MPS which, and of the seve may be had at the Revenue Vessels erson Dublin, and from t aper, Cork, and Limerick. mers

the chasers,

The PR

or attention

CLOTHS t

on inspection

in price and which he is d

MENT at Mag

careful cor

Those C. Ses-

Judges, to her-

HAS abandon-

APP .- in the sa-

Theak perma-

fairly Ppiness—in fairly Ppiness—of her is most ts—of her incompense world's slightest at, indeed,

"." A sts of all, a

Apprenti whilst it

Edin's lorios virginum

find stories in the frusterly

wire ical perfor ners.

er choir to the Chapel,

Acolythes, Rev. Mr. Daly, remonies, 34, Gill.

y Rev. W oden Efrench,

Train Bear it arden Firench having been istorium, under a rich cano-

and his officiaring Ministers es at the gospel-side of the breathless expectation --- the Appeared, in the attendance of ber beaming in the glow of youth-rained in the world she forsook,

-which taught us to believe, that moved in the attraction of every

Fery Reverend Celebrant was then con-

in all the various ceremonies, which always ider the Catholic Service sublime. After the ospel, the Reverend Mr. Daly delivered an ent to the subject he handled.

cellent Sermon, addressed particularly to the vice, and prefaced by a Text admirably per-

Hearken, O Daughter, and see and incline thing ear; shalt leave thy People and thy Father's house, for the last leave thy People and the hearts.

shalt leave thy People and tay Father's nous, for the hath greatly desired thy beauty; and is the Lord thy

After Mass the Novice retired, whilst the clusion of the Pealm she armand discount the Con-

her worldly habiliments, and vested in the simplicity of penance and retirement. In the diffe-

Just After Mass the Pource, in full tone, the Psalma

Aon, Rev. Mr. Gill.

Mr. O'Donnell.

buriferere.

juring to the ce, and her in

X at

d six

The Proposals a endorsed "Proposals nue Cruisers;" the A on board the several and. Contractors at whateve to be placed on; the their Securities for the Contract, and no allo Contract Price will be contracted for, except additional duty (shoul the Stock of Spirits le Contractors.

No Proposal will o'Clock on the above-m W. LI

November 2, 1821.

COURT OF COMMO THE COLLEGE V. TI

Thursday, in this cau the Jury, which was of the following persons William Stewart, Jol mes M. Strong, Claudiu rry, James Caulfield, tl lliam L. Cunningham, braith, James Sinclair, ord Norbury-Gentle lves upon the Court ous task of addressing ortant case between t learning in this countr mbarrassed with the co witnesses, and we

h less perplexity. of his high office, on to the livin and this right th t to his Grace, c. It is the bu decide betweer ip recapitulate bserved, Gent. ues in the qu lonfeickle, e period of t e nothing to t then, they e enjoyed nt posssessi 't divest n any othe ntlemen, if grant in 1 nis advowso n in 1634, this the abı has nor clusion of the Psalm she appeared discobed of old lly any e Rev. rem answers to the questions put to her by the n wor e lis f whose determination of embracing a life of Relir- upo gion and of Charity, was that of long and conclusion reflection reflection. The ceremony on the whole created a deep and general interest; when we created a deep and general interest; when he sat flown to write we were determined to decline the improvement of the improvemen sat flown to write we were determined to improve priety of conveying an idea of the feelings the priety of conveying an idea of the feelings to were enkindled, we shrunk from the task, we shrunk We cannot ation too arduous for description. We cannot ation arduous for description.

equally well exercise and violoncello and equally who parmony, and the solos and young lady who passages in the Cloric were highly appre passages in the Cloric were highly apprended the selected, thyiction of no mean superiority. We almost pim it superfluous to congratulate the sisterhood cohe acquisition they have this day received hig hly appral passages in the Gloria, were imfor med and manly, leaving on our minds the