DEATHS.
 On Wednesday night, in Mallow-street, after a lingering illness, which she bore with the most unrepining submission to the Divine Will, Miss Isabella Ryves, daughter of the late Francis Ryves, Esq. of Ryves Castle, in this County; a Lady whose many amiable and excellent qualities endeared her to all her acquaintance, whilst to her more immediate friends and connections, the recollection of her worth must render her loss a source of the deepest and most lasting regret.
 This morning, at the house of her brother, in Patrick-street, Miss Jepson, sister of John Jepson, Esq. a young Lady who bore a tedious illness with the resignation and composure of a Christian, and died in the full hope of a glorious resurrection; her amiable temper and manners will long be held in remembrance by a family the most attached and united.
