

not go that distance, nor a mile; prisoner priss with Mr. George Bruce, near Charleville; with the prisoner very industrious.

nined—Keeps a public house; number persons ard and forward, and will swear he was not ab-home on Thursday evening, at 5 o'clock; Mo-witness's house; the prisoner was taken between and the kitchen; could not tell how the soldier he; witness was in the shop, but did not see him going in; did not hear, nor ever enquired how he witness went to Mr. Mazy and others to speak isoner's innocence.

urt—Friday prevented prisoner from going home, eat his dinner up stairs; prisoner was in the n he returned; when witness came down prison-be kitchen; afterwards slept until eight o'clock, was there; does not know what became of the t saw him in the morning.

in—Lived with Mr. Leahy (last witness) and is remembers the 1st of February; was at Leahy's ess superintends his uncle's business; saw the is uncle's house; came home the evening of the and spent his time at the kitchen fire; saw the he fire; went to bed at nine o'clock; the prisoner e absent twenty minutes.

urt—Witness dined at his uncle's; prisoner was en while there, and made haste from dinner.

Valis—Is a baker in the employment of Mr. ay; recollects the day prisoner was taken; was the bake-house on the 1st February, and was in that day; he was in company with the prisoner; t up stairs, and prisoner's dinner was cutting up; a three minutes of nine o'clock when he (witness) l, he got up at two o'clock to go to work; on could not be absent.

amined.—Prisoner did not work with him; he Molony's (a school-master who was tried at being up stairs, when asked below, if any ere up stairs; witness said not, because it was ere asked for, and did not think Molony a inks Molony an innocent man.—Not Guilty.

Ryan, for stealing mare, the property of igan—no prosecution.

Cunningham was indicted, for that he, on the ary, did unlawfully appear in arms, against the statute.

ner, 93d Regiment, remembers the 8th January, ghgur, and saw prisoner about eleven or twelve d took him into custody; two Gentlemen gave ers, one of whom was Mr. O'Grady; witness isoner and others running armed; witness leaped eb, and prisoner presented a blunderbuss at witess told the prisoner if he did not give up the he would blow out his brains; gave up the Mr. O'Grady, and put him to Bridewell at four the morning.

amined by Counselor Howly—Told him to he would blow his brains out; there were three h witness, and they are not here.

said he would get a character; the Judge said Jury believed what was sworn, the best char-a to man could not acquit him—Guilty.

ace not having amounted to the attacking of a king a life, was only a misdemeanour, he was to be imprisoned for twelve months, to be whipped during that period, in Bruff, and at the end of to give security, himself in £100, and two £20 each, during his life, and imprisoned until at security.

THURSDAY, MARCH 21.

Cull, James Tonhill, James Nash, and John e indicted for feloniously seizing arms from rling, on the 8th of December. This trial ocn ten in the morning until six o'clock in the evens characterised by the most intricate features to decide upon. There was a want of identity mes of two of the prisoners, in which all the esses agreed. A very plausible alibi was set up, long deliberation they were found Guilty.—

FRIDAY, MARCH 22.

Noona, Patrick Nugent, Thomas Carmody, linan, William Dunworth, Francis Burly, and tiner, were indicted for taking arms under the late King, and for feloniously taking arms from our soldiers of the 40th Regiment. The princi-and the son to which it from his creditors. Verdict Plaintiff, £60 damages and Costs.

Herson a. Power.—This action was to recover doubrent for a piece of ground overheld after notice to quit be-given. Verdict for Plaintiff, £33 12s. 6d. and costs.

Fitz-Gerald a. Clifford.—An action as to the right of portion of bog. Verdict for Plaintiff, 6d. damages, a costs.

Sir Walter Roberts a. O'Brien.—An action for holding lands. Verdict for Plaintiff.

Thursday, William Cagney, for the man-of Thomas Foley, near Newcastle, was hein the front of the New County Jail. The fortunate wretch appeared truly penitknowledged the justice of his sentence, stated that since he imbued his hands in sh-human blood, he had not one moment's p-mind. After hanging the usual time, e-was taken to the Infirmary for dissection.

Thursday, Owen Sullivan, charged bing Mr. Rose's house, near Rathkeal from the guard, whilst conveying from County Jail to the Court-House.

Yesterday the Hon. J. P. Vereke and Members of the City, Limerick Jury, unanimously voted a Congratulatory address to the Most Noble the Marquis of Evesley Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

The County Limerick Grand Jury to petition the Legislature to repeal Insurrection Act, which will expire the August.

The applications for presentment the cou-Grand Jury, by persons whose les and pperty have been consumed by theurgents, are most considerable. Several of s, however, have been rejected in Court, in sequence of legal defect in the affidavits.

The King's County Assizes commenced at Philipstown on Monday before Norbury; John H. Droughty Esq. is man of the Grand Jury. John Daly and es Finea, for burglary, and Thomas Wilson the murder of Thomas Knox, a policeman, were sentenced to be hanged.

A respite was on Thursday received for sixteen men sentenced to be hanged at the last Cork Special Commission.

James McCarthy, a schooler, was convicted at Cork Sessions, on Thursday, under the Insurrection Act, and need to transportation.

Four men were sentenced seven years transportation at Tralee Seson Wednesday.

Since our last, James I. John Heir, Michael Dillon, Michael Frald, and M. h.
Hanrahan, were lodged in County Jail as idle and disorderly, by The Davenport, q. whose activity as a Magist is highly m-mendable. They are to ried under the Insurrection Act.

On Tuesday morning between three of two and three o'clock several firshouses on the lands of Cass, near were attacked and broken by a p-about eight in number, armed with and some pistols, and mercifully Patrick Burns, Patrick Mth, Joh-nell, John Nunan, Thomnd Patr, and threatened them with did not quit their