

ANTIQUE FURNITURE
OF THE HOUSE.
of the best Articles of Furniture, for Halls, and Bed Rooms, with Pier Glasses, Lanterns, Barrel Organ, and several Plated
some of the best Pictures in this King-Rembrandt, Snyder, Poussin, and Vernet:
—The Prodigal Son, Peter liberated by leading before Arippa—and also Copies of these Masters. To be seen on the 23d and 24th days before sale.

pays the Excise Duty. To commence at
THOMAS SEYMOUR Auctionier.
April, 1822. 3 rs

DOMINICAN CHAPEL.
FRIDAY, THE 21st INSTANT,
AT TWO O'CLOCK,
CHARITY SERMON

preached in the Dominican Chapel, Glentree, by the Rev. P. R. GRIFFITH, in order of the acting Committee to finish the interior of this splendid edifice. As it is no less a Temple of God than an ornament to the City of Limerick, it is hoped that the present inhabitants will, by their Correspondence on the present occasion, assist the Rev. Mr.
Griffith in a work which, to their immortal credit, and in testimony of communion or creed, they have so generously enabled him to begin.

April 13.

TO BE SOLD,
SIX HUNDRED POUNDS
THE ENGAGEMENTS OF
W. W. KENNEL, KENNEDY and MAUNSELL, at any time will be given for the payment.
The Security be satisfactory.
Limerick Chronicle Office, where reference Limerick, March 16.

TO BE LET,
THE FIRST OF MAY NEXT,
USE IN WILLIAM-STREET,
OCCUPIED BY MR. J. T. BAYLEE.

IT IS IN GOOD REPAIR,
and is fit for the immediate reception of a Family.
Apply to BOLD, Mount-Kennett, or to RICHARD FITZGERALD, Esq. Anne-street.
April 13.

DESIRABLE RESIDENCE IN THE COUNTY WEXFORD.

TO BE LET,
FOR A TERM OF YEARS,
AND RENEWABLE FOR EVER.

Apply to OFFICE, Garden and Forty-two Acres of arable Land at OAK HALL, situate two miles north of the town, in a pleasant peacable neighbourhood of sporting country. The House is in good repair and is fit for the immediate reception of a Gentleman's family. The Lands are well enclosed, conveniently divided, and have a constant supply of water.—Provisions and Fuel are cheap and plenty. The Country is extremely fertile and may be travelled at all hours with perfect safety. A lease possession can be given, and to commence the 1st of May next.
Apply to be made (if by Letter post paid) to Capt.
Clonmel.
3
April 6.

THE NOBLE HORSE
LYMPUS.

Residing, nine miles from Limerick, and five from Newmarket-on-Fergus.
Information respecting him attended to, that is desired to JAMES SWANLAN, Groom, who will accompany and lead out the Horse, before
TWO GUINEAS.

with a cargo of potatoes from Jersey.
Several vessels with Potatoes from Scotland, are expected.

BIRTHS.

In Dublin, the Lady of James G. Russell, Esq. of a daughter.
At Duckett's Grove, County Carlow, the Lady of J. D.
Duckett, Esq. of a son and heir.
The Lady of Robert Bradshaw, Esq. of a son.
At Rockley Park, Co. Rescommon, the Lady of Major Wills, of a daughter.
At Limpston, the Lady of Lieut.-Colonel William Power
Royal Artillery, of a son.
In Carlow, the Lady of John Leonard, Esq. of a son, and the Lady of Singleton Walker, Esq. of a son.
In Dublin, the Lady of William Graham, Esq. of a son.
At Southsea Lodge, near Portsmouth, the Lady of Captain
Sir James A. Gordon, K. C. B. of a daughter.
At Rome, the Lady of John Craufurd, Esq. of Auchen-cunnie, of a son.
At Canterbury, the Marchioness of Ely, of a son.
At Watton-on-Thames, the Lady of William Parker, Esq.
of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

At Newmarket, County Clare, by the Rev. R. Gahrett, David Falconer, Esq. of the Hon. East India Company's Service, to Miss Fraser.
In Dublin, Robert Ennis, Esq. of Monasterevan, to Mary, daughter of the late Doctor Kelly, of Portarlino.
In Cork, Doctor Warren, of Kinsale, to Jane, daughter of the late Philip Spiane, Esq.
In Dublin, Richard Handcock, Esq. of Athlone, to Margaret, of Michael Harris, Esq.
In Cork, Mr. James Power, to the daughter of Dr. Lyons, of Castle-Lyons.
W. H. Armstrong, Esq. late of the 55th Regiment, to Miss Martinez, of London.
At Benburb Church, William B. Wallace, jun Esq. of Dublin, to Margaret, second daughter of John Donnelly, Esq. of Blackwater Town, Co. Armagh.
In Tallaght Church, Captain Henry Clayton Cowell, of the 1st or Royal Regiment, to Essy Ann, second daughter of John Parr, Esq. of Dublin.
The Hon. P. Fellow, Captain B. N. and M. P. eldest son of Lord Exmouth, to Janet, daughter of M. Dick, Esq. of Richmond and of Angus, Scotland.
In London, Captain John R. Kell, 21 or Queen's, to Miss E. Chamberlayne, of Brighton.
At Chichester, Peter C. Haquet, Captain in the 2d Regiment of the Garde Royale, Paris, to Miss Johnson, of Salisbury.

DEATHS.

This morning, at Madeboy, deeply and deservedly be-mourned by all who knew her, Miss Mary Bourke. In her the poor and distressed will have to regret the loss of a most liberal benefactress, as her kindness and charities to the poor were unbounded, and by her numerous relatives and friends her death will be long felt and deplored.
In Clonmel, the relict of Richard Sargent, Esq.
Surgeon Royal, of Belfast.
The Rev. P. Burke, P. P. of Crossmolina, Co. Mayo.
Mr. Paul Doyle, of Cork.
At Boulogne, John Carter, Esq. of Barnane, County Tipperary.
At Cloghan, the wife of Mr. David Coulton
The Rev. Robert Moran, Master of Cork Diocesan School.
Mr. George Hughes, of Armagh.
The Rev. Mr. O'Connell, P. P. of Ballybeigue, County
Kerry.
The Rev. George Boldero, of Norfolk.
In Waterford, the relict of Mr. Thomas Hughes, of Clonmel.
Rowland, son of Daniel McKay, Esq. of Dublin.
The relict of William Mason, Esq. of Bailinacorney, County Kerry.
In Cork, rather suddenly, Mr. Michael Corner, auctioneer.
At Paris, Cesar Colclough, Esq. of Wexford, late C. of Justice of Newfoundland.
On his return from Jamaica, Major Scott.
At Pines Hill, Breehanoge, Colonel Welsh, aged 72 years.
At Gateside, Hamilton, Mrs. McIntosh, wife of Captain McIntosh, late of the 42d Regiment.

THE MARKETS.