ROYAL EXCHANGE

ASSURANCE,

Chartered by Royal Charter and Act of Parliament,

In the Year 1720,

INSURING BUILDINGS, GOODS, AND SHIPS FROM FIRE,

AND ALSO FOR THE

ASSURANCE OF LIVES.

By the yearly payment of a moderate sum out of a person's Income, persons may secure to their wives, or to their indigent relations, or any individuals who may be desirous to aid, an adequate provision against distress which might be produced by death and the cessation of income contingent on life. Clergy, Magistrate Officers, Pensioners, Barrack Masters, Officers, and all Persons enjoying Places for Life, or for a term of Years, or Estates, are by Life Assurance, enabled to secure to themselves and their Families, and to their posterity, the respectability for their Families.

Persons may be insured for £10,000 to the age of 67 years; and may be insured by special agreement on persons aged

Persons may be insured by special agreement on persons aged 60 years, and upwards, on the production of Medical Certificates, with the many troublesome and expensive documents and reference required at all the other Offices. The Public are afforded every facility for effecting Life Assurance;—for insuring fortunes, and providing for families, and for insuring Mills, Works of Manufactories, Buildings, and Goods of every description, Farm-houses and Haggards Insured at a moderate rate.

A sum as £3,000 can be covered on Mill risks, and a sum as £10,000 can be covered on Mill risks, and a sum as £10,000 can be covered on Mill risks.

Persons Insured at this Office do not depend upon any fund or contribution, nor are they, or their Families, subject to covenants, or liable by Acts of Parliament to make good the Losses which may happen—the whole Stock of the Corporation being an unquestionable security to the Assured: The experience of a Century and upwards, and shews the unerring wisdom and stability of this Ancient Establishment.

For Rates, and every information respecting Insurance, apply gratis by
