ROYAL EXCHANGE
ASSURANCE,
 and by Royal Charter and Act of Parliament,
In the Year 1720.
INSURING BUILDINGS, GOODS, AND SHIPS
FROM FIRE, AND ALSO FOR THE
ASSURANCE OF LIVES.

By payment of a moderate sum out of a line, persons may secure to their wives, their indigent relations, or any individuals who may be desirous to and, an adequate provision which might be produced by death and cessation of income contingent on life. Clergymen, Officers, Pensioners, Barrack Masters, Officers, and Persons enjoying Places for Life, or possessions, are by Life Assurance, enabled to set a respectable provision for their Families, for £10,000 to the age of 67 years; and by special agreement on persons aged and certificates, with the many troublesome and agents and reference required at all the other offices, is dispensed with in this. The Public are afforded every facility for effecting Life Assurance;— for increasing fortunes, and providing for families.

Manufactories, Buildings, and Goods of all kinds, Farm-houses and Haggards Insured at a sum of £2,000 can be covered on Mill risks, and be issued the instant they are ordered.

 Insured at this Office do not depend upon the good or contribution, nor are they, or their heirs, or assigns, or liable by Acts of Parliament, or otherwise, to contribute to the payment of the Losses which may happen—the risk of the Corporation being an unquestionable Assured: The experience of a Century, and shows the unerring wisdom and stability of this Ancient Establishment.
