

recollections of my early days, the only moment feel, is, that my feeble efforts by devoted to your spiritual advantage as that I am thus deprived of an opportunity of the nature and sincerity of my gratitude, ed by the highest Ecclesiastical Authority world, worthy and competent to fill the to with the unbiased suffrages of so many lent Gregynem, and the wishes of the Cit-our City and County, almost unanimously led a proud distinction, and to be thus a blimented by so large a portion of the rank, stability of the Roman Catholic population ncrease, is an honor to convey my sense of language totally inadequate, the sacred congregation shall think fit, to its gracious intentions in my regard, (as script to which in such flattering terms you ess, to me, a matter of little importance, no part of my character, and in the active ible duties of my present state and amidst t respectable and attached friends, I expe-happiness as is perhaps for me attainable, whatever situation it shall please that all which has watched over me from childhood all never cease to pray with affectionate inter-interrupted and unclouded prosperity.

I have the honor to be,
 Gentlemen,
 your greatest esteem and respect, and very much obliged and obedient servant, pher Meade, Esq. of this City.

 On Thursday, at his seat at Gloster, in the King's County, John Lloyd, Esq. in his 85th year. During the whole course of his long life, his chief and constant study was to alleviate the distresses, and ameliorate the condition of the poor; and while he continued as the Representative in Parliament of his native County, his uniform conduct was marked with that degree of probity and worth that endeared him to his numerous and highly respectable constituents, who manifested the deepest regret at his delivering into their hands the sacred trust reposed in him. He has set a prais-worthy example of integrity and honour to his family, who will long cherish his memory, and who will regret the hour when it hath pleased Almighty God to call him forth from this transitory life.

At Mallow, on Friday evening, the 14th inst. in her 24th year, Olivia, daughter of the late John Daxon, Esq. of Straburgh, County Clare. She bore a long and distressing illness with patience, and exchanged mortality for life, in possession of the hope set before sinners in the Gospel, the forgiveness of sins and acceptance with God, through the finished work of the crucified Saviour. Her remains passed through here yesterday, to be interred in the family vault at New-Hall, Co.
