

Whiteboy Act.

Captain Bowles, near Tallow, were burned on Tuesday night. At Spencil-Hill, County Clare, most numerous attended.— Demand: some brought from ; three years' old colts were avidity by English buyers: no request: three years' old from £5 to 5 guineas; sheep sold at a guinea.

Croon, strippers and sheep in and brought rather good prices: eight £32.

Wh potatoes for Clare and Galway, passed Athlone on Friday, being thirty-nine tons of potatoes, sent to be distributed among the Barony of Arra, County of Wick, at Killaloe on Thursday. They were delivered out of her by the Esq. of Fort-Henry, on Friday, in proportion to the extent of the relief. There were upwards of 100, and the greatest regularity in the distribution, by the attendance and a party of Police. The cargo was reserved for the evening to Derry and Castle. In the direction of Messrs. Head, Magistrates, who disposed of the cargo among the poor of these

Police was abused on Saturday, which he was escorting to Doonass rescued, by a numerous assembly, near Erina, County Clare. The ringleaders are identified and in last, a car, conveying meal, by O'Grady, Esq. Kilballyowen, by some country people, in the neighbourhood, and some part of it was recovered by the active interference of the Police, assisted by Joseph Gubbins, passing at the time, a considerable sum recovered.

A £500 was remitted by the Liverpool Committee for the relief of the poor, to the Committee for the distressed in the County of Limerick.

The Committee for the Relief of the Poor, in the County of Limerick, are deserving of every praise for the unwearied exertions and close attention to the discharge of the trust reposed in them. There are upwards of 1200 persons employed in useful public works, and it has been ascertained that by that mode 6000 persons are supported by means of existence.

It is a matter of great importance to state, that the Liverpool Committee will not in future make any application to the County of Limerick, or to the Central Committee. All applications to the former will there-

The Board of Health has been sent to the hospital in Galway.

The King will certainly leave London on the 3d of August, on a tour through Scotland. This was finally agreed on by his Ministers on the 19th instant. His Majesty will go direct to Holyrood House.

A duel was fought without any ill effects near Boyle on Thursday, between Thomas Fry, Esq. and H. Irwin, Esq. of Sligo.

The Merchants in Galway have petitioned Parliament on the subject of the Salt Tax.

A young man, named Cahill, a tailor, was found dead in his bed, on Sunday morning, in Thomond-Gate, where he resided. He retired to rest the night before in apparent good health.

One hundred and sixty labourers of Mr. Deane's, in Cork, quitted employ on Monday; they earned each from 6s. to 7s. a week---he has since got fresh men, and will not employ again those that have struck.

A beadle to the Union of Trades in Cork is lodged in Jail by the Mayor, for serving notices to the masons not to work with a man who was employed at a lesser rate than the body desired.

Messrs. Edward L. Wilson and David Ievers, (Parochial Committee for the Parish of Pheenagh,) gratefully acknowledge the receipt of £24 17s. 2d. British, from the Liverpool Committee, for the relief of the Poor in that Parish.

The Rev. Henry Hewson and Mr. Hayes have received the following sums for the relief of the Poor of the Parish of Abbeyseale:— From the Mansion House Committee £30; Liverpool Committee £30; Limerick Agricultural Committee £20; Honourable Colonel Fitzgibbon £25; Local Subscriptions £10.

The Rev. Richard Studdert has received from the Thatched House Tavern, through the Lord Bishop of Killaloe, £10; and from the Mansion House Committee, Dublin, the sum of £20, for the relief of the Poor.

The Rev. J. Crampton thankfully acknowledges the receipt of ten pounds from Miss Macartney, of Stephen's-green, out of the profits of her charitable Puppet Show, for the relief of the Poor of Castle Connell.

Mr. Peppard, has received £27 13s. from that highly distinguished Corps the 42d Regt. quartered in Rathkeale, for the poor of that town.

One thousand two hundred and three families, consisting of 6,197 individuals, receive relief, by charitable contributions, in the town of Tipperary.

That celebrated Preacher, the Rev. Robert Newton, is to preach this Evening in Wesley Chapel, George's-Street, at Seven o'clock.

Committed—To the County Jail, by Colonel Norcott, Denis Sweeney and John Sweeney, for attacking the house of J. Griffin by night; by E. V. Fitz-Gerald, Esq. Timothy Neville, for robbery; by H. Cassidy, Esq. Denis O'Brien, John Manning, Thomas Manning, Thomas Ryan, Patrick Ryan, James Connors, Michael Connors, Robert Ryan, John Ryan, and John Connors, for the murder of John Dillon; by the Rev. Thomas Grady, John Higgins, for being idle and disorderly.