FIRE INSURANCE EXCHANGE

ASSURANCE,

granted by Royal Charter and Act of Parliament,

In the Year 1720.

INSURING BUILDINGS, GOODS, AND SHIPS FROM FIRE,

AND ALSO FOR THE

ASSURANCE OF LIVES.

Summs on Fire Insurance, due on the 1st, are to be paid on or before the 1st July next.

Early payment of a moderate sum out of a decided income, persons may secure to their wives, children, their indigent relations, or any individuals to whom they may be desirous to aid, an adequate provision to meet any distress which might be produced by death and cessation of income contingent on life. Clergymen, Magistrates, Officers, Pensioners, Barrack Masters, Officers, and all Persons enjoying Places for Life, or possessors of Estates, are by Life Assurance, enabled to secure a respectable provision for their Families.

Summs of £10,000 to the age of 67 years; and increased by special agreement on persons aged above 67 years, with the many troublesome and expensive documents and references required at all the other offices. The Public are afforded every facility for effecting Life Assurance;— insuring Fortunes, and providing for Families.

of Manufactories, Buildings, and Goods of all kinds, Farm-houses and Haggards Insured at a very low rate.

Summs as £3,000 can be covered on Mill risks, and can be issued the instant they are ordered.

Summs Insured at this Office do not depend upon any fund or contribution, nor are they, or their beneficiaries, liable by Acts of Parliament to contribute towards the Losses which may happen—the Stock of the Corporation being an unquestionable asset to the Assured:—The experience of a Century of stability, and shows the unerring wisdom and soundness of this Ancient Establishment.

For Rates, and every information respecting Insurance, apply to

JAMES MORGAN, AGENT,

No. 2, George's-street.

A Committee appointed to manage the Fund for relieving the Poor in the Parishes of Clonm and Dysart, return their grateful Thanks to the following Gentlemen, who have so liberally subscribed their names for the purpose of giving aid and food to more than 2000 famishing Indigent Parishes. They have the gratification of seeing that in consequence of the SEED POTA-TOE LIBERALITY, enabled them to purchase and distribute POOR GRANTS, almost all the Potatoe Land has been cropped, and a future scarcity they trust will be avoided. They have been hitherto enabled to distribute THREE TONS of OATMEAL every Week, and the liberality of Noblemen and Gentlemen, (great benefactors) in this Parish to whom they have and from whom they have not as yet had the
