

ENNIS SCHOOL.
Closed on MONDAY, the 5th
of August.
July 29.

PRIVATE TUITION.
A MAN who has lived these few years past of the most respectable Families in method of instruction improves with much are committed to his care, would accept to. He can teach Greek, Latin, French, magnetic, &c. &c. Satisfactory reference as character can be given.
To be made at the Chronicle Office—(Letters
Limerick, July 31.

ARCHITECTS, &c. &c.
ESTIMATES for altering and improving the
the Goal of ENNIS, in the County of Clare, by the Secretary to the Grand Jury, at his —Letters post-paid.
July 31, 1872.

PUBLIC THANKS.
Undersigned, on behalf of the Poor of St.
Parish, return Thanks to RALPH WESTROPP, the truly humane and judicious manner in distributed the sum of One Hundred Pounds, individual disposal, by "The London Com-of the Distressed Irish," whereby many Widows and Orphans have experienced a most seasonable relief. The objects selected for their relief meet our highest re-Temporary relief has been afforded to those condition of this special commiseration, who widge were destitute beyond description—no could not obtain relief by employment.
relief (notmeal) adopted on this occasion has advantage of placing the creatures relieved necessity of using a few meals of solid food which they now seldom enjoy. We further reof conduct adopted by Ralph Westropp, tion of those to whose description the distri-may be confided during these awful times misery and distress.

HENRY GUEBINS, Curate, St. Mary's,
HANRAHAN, P. P. St. Mary's,
JOS. ENRIGHT, R. C. Curate St. Mary's,
M. DOWNS, B. C. Curate St. Mary's, FLEZ GIBBON, Chaplain to the Magdalen
by St. 1122, Asylum.

NOTICE.
THE Assignees intending to close the Payment of the First Dividend of Debts proved on this 31 August 1872, requests all unpaid creditors to apply therefor Payday.
No Payments made on Monday.
Cork, July 13/1872.

ALBION
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
Age-street, Black Friars, London,
AND
FRENCH ROW, RUTLAND-SQUARE, DUBLIN
Incorporated by Act of Parliament.
ONE MILLION BRITISH sterling.

The London Spectator, which sailed from this port on the 21st May for Philadelphia, put into Boston on the 24th
June, a day later.

The King's Son, Strakes, which sailed from this port for St. John's, Newfoundland, arrived at her destination on the 17th June.

BIRTHS.

In Gloucester, the Lady of J. T. Walcott, Esq (daughter of the Rev. Richard Croker,) of a daughter

At Highnam Court, Gloucester, the Lady of George Tierney Croker, Esq., of a daughter.

At Linton Castle, County Tipperary, the Lady of Major
Langley, of a son.

On Friday, the 19th instant, at the Palace, Monthbrilliant, near Hanover, the Duchess of Cambridge, of a Princess.

In London, the Lady of General Sir Hudson Lowe, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

In Ennis, by the Rev. Thomas B. Brady, Captain Amos F. Westropp, Royal Navy, to Catherine, eldest daughter of the late Rev. Archdeacon Kenny.

At Kinscorthy, Robert Roe, Esq. to the Widow Jeffery, Captain Hugh McGrigor, to Ann, only daughter of the late Peregrine Patmer, Esq. of Barnard's Inn, London.

At Cusinstown, Joseph Delany, Esq. to Miss Wilson.
At Perth, Dr. Colin Lauder, of Edinburgh, to Margaret, daughter of the late James Ross, Esq.

At Calcutta, Sir Robert Colquhoun, Bart. commanding a subsidiary battalion in the province of Almorah, to Anne, daughter of James Colvin, Esq. of Calcutta, Banker.

On Saturday last at Knaresborough, by the Rev. Mr.
Smith, M. A. Minister of York, teacher of languages, to Miss Ann Cost, of the former place, milliner. Such a solemn ceremony, the harmony of the wedding day was considerably interrupted by the appearance of a gentleman, who stated that the bridegroom had another wife, who was living in Dublin, 12 room of the residence of her husband. The solicitations of the Lady's friends, however, proved unavailing to separate her from her husband, and they immediately set off together in a coach for York. A very handsome dinner, which had been provided at the Crown Inn, was left unconsumed, the whole of the wedding party having separated at this unexpected dejection.

DEATHS.

On Monday, at his house, Rutland-street, after a short illness, Edward Fin, Esq. Proprietor of the Limerick Journal; a Gentleman of the most inoffensive manners.

On Sunday, at his house, Roscrea, of fever caught in professional attendance, George Hargrove, jun. Esq. (eldest son of George Hargrove, Esq. of this City,) Assistant Surgeon of the Limerick City Militia, and half-pay Royal Artillery—a young Gentleman whose amiable and conciliating conduct endeared him to a numerous circle of friends, whilst his disinterested and humane attention to the wants of the distressed were ever conspicuous. His loss to his family and friends will be long felt with the deepest sorrow and regret. His remains were yesterday interred in the family vault at John's Church, in this City.

At her father's seat, Highnam Court, Gloucester, in the prime of life, after a short illness, Mrs. Croker, wife of George Tierney Croker, Esq.; a young Lady whose demise has plunged her family and friends into the most poignant grief, and deep regret to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

At Dublin, on Thursday, Lady O'Connor, relict of the late Sir Patrick O'Connor, of Cork, and sister of Commissioner Therry.

At Gort, Matthew Lyons, Esq.
In Upper Baggot-street, Dublin, Sally, daughter of James Callwell, Esq.

In Boyle, the wife of Mr. Robert Cryan.
At Castleblaney, Mrs. Molloy, wife of Mr. James Molloy, of Beresford-street, Dublin.

At Tullora, Co. Carlow, Mr. Mark Rulkin.
At Spanish Town, Jamaica, Elizabeth, wife of Captain Custance, 50th Regiment.

Captain Beauchamp Mackintosh, Madras Artillery.
At Corfu, Major Vernon, 36th Regiment.
In London, Mr. Emery, the celebrated actor.

At Kent House, the Countess Glasgow, daughter of the Earl of Argyll.

Suddenly, in London, Mr. Broshoof, Deputy Marshal of the King's Bench Prison.

THE MARKETS.

Market Prices this day.—Red Wheat, 10s. to 1s. 0d
White, 10s. to 1s. 0d. ...