the City, take this public opportunity of expressing their grateful and unfeigned thanks to the Magistrates, particularly to our worthy Magistrate Fetherston, for his zeal and attention to the Parishes, for their impartial and just management of the funds placed in their hands for the relief of the Parishes; and also for the very judicious works they have nearly accomplished, by which important objects have been attained. Ist, many families who would otherwise actually starve with hunger, and its necessary attendant, distress, and the consequent public burthen, which is actually repairing the worst but most public evil of this part of the County, thereby affording relief to other parishes into the great bogs of the County, and Seanough, which could never be reclaimed by Grand Jury Presentments.

It is our duty bound to express our grateful and unfeigned thanks to the benevolent Government under which we live, for the bountiful and timely
