B. McNULTY

PECTFULLY informs the Nobility and Gentry of his City and the adjacent Counties, that he has pur-at the late Auction, Custom-house, Kiltush, two Real Dutch Paper Hangings, of the newest and cription; and ventures to say, from the delicacy and ess of design, truth and richness of colouring, and of figures, any thing more splendid of this kind, has eared in Ireland; he therefore confidently recomhem to such as wish to have their rooms finished in a nd elegant style on moderate terms—having pur-at a fair price, enables him to sell these Hangings then any pattern of the kind was ever disposed of.
ULTY has for sale also the newest English and Irish Room Papers of every description, made in the first starting houses of both countries; and to save the y and Gentry the trouble and expense of carriage ublin or England, will sell as cheap or cheaper than n buy in those places.

nowledge and experience in works in the above line, e him in England and Ireland, together with the expeof such men as he has in employment, will preclude essity of bringing others from the Irish Metropolis or
d. McNULTY will forfeit the expense altogether works if not considered by competent judges as well and complete as can possibly be executed by any n his line.

Country Orders strictly attended to.
