DEATHS.

On Sunday night, at his house, Bedford-row, George Black, Esq. This lamented Gentleman possessed in a high degree the qualities of the mind and heart which create and preserve public esteem; his judgment was correct and strong—his manners unassuming and cheerful; no man was more steady and warm in his friendships; no man cherished with greater affection those near relations who compose the chief solace and charm of life. Such a man must be an affliction to his family and a loss to society.

On Saturday morning, at her lodgings in Roche's-street, in this City, deservedly lamented, Mrs. David Edward Fitzgerald, of Bullingarry.
