

and very fine East India UGARS.
 convenient lots to suit Buyers. — ½ Cwt. to ¼ Cwt. each.
 at his Yard and Stores,
 just landed,
 do.
 Feet Memel and Norway Deals and Hops,
 Pot Ashes,
 Fallow,
 Suls,
 Salt,
 k,
 Glass,
 and Ash Staves,
 Oak, &c. &c.
 Limerick, September 25, 1822.

EXCHANGE ASSURANCE,
 Royal Charter and Act of Parliament,
 the Year 1720,
 BUILDINGS, GOODS, AND SHIPS
 FROM FIRE, ALSO FOR THE PRESERVATION OF LIVES.

ment of a moderate sum out of a persons may secure to their wives, diligent relations, or any individuals desirous to aid, an adequate provision which might be produced by death and of income contingent on life. Clergy-Pensioners, Barrack Masters, Officers, persons enjoying Places for Life, or possessors by Life Assurance, enabled to secure stability for their Families.
 £10,000 to the age of 67 years; and special agreement on persons aged 60 years, with the many troublesome and and reference required at all the other with in this: The Public are afforded facility for effecting Life Assurance; — fortunes, and providing for families.
 factories, Buildings, and Goods of in-houses and Haggarts Insured at a £3,000 can be covered on Mill risks.
 effected the instant they are ordered.
 and at this Office do not depend upon contribution, nor are they, or their covenants, or liable by Acts of Parliament the Losses which may happen—the Corporation being an unquestionedly assured: The experience of a Century and shows the unerring wisdom and prudent Establishment.
 every information respecting Insurance.
JAMES MORGAN, AGENT,
 George's Street.
 Steam Engine Establishment kept up for hire, and at the Engine-house, Mandyke, constant attendance.

Climon, County Armagh.
 At Castlebellingham, Doctor John Peckles, of Dublin, to Miss Anne Bellingham.
 At Churchtown, County Westmeath, Samuel Hutchins, Esq. to Frances Camac, second daughter of A. K. Camac Newburgh, Esq. late of Ballyhaise, County Cavan.
 At Pytham, Colonel Mulcaster, of Barham, Kent, to Harriet, only daughter of the late William Harris, Esq. of Luddenhamcourt, Kent.
 At Columbo, Captain Hilton, of the 45th, to Miss Tetitia Hutchinson, daughter of Major Summerfield, of the 63d.
 At Norwich, Denis Mahon, Esq. Captain in the 24th Regiment, to Henrietta Bathurst, eldest daughter of the Bishop of Norwich.
 At Chudleigh, Devon, by the Rev. Gilbert Burrington, Mr. Gilbert Burrington, of Peckham Rise, Surrey, to Elizabeth Treby Packer.
 In Guernsey, A. M. W. Young, Esq. of Hibern, to Amelia, youngest daughter of Sir James Sumner, Bart.
 G. C. B. Vice Admiral of the Fleet of Great Britain.
 At Aberdeen, Lieut. W. Anderson, late Adjutant of the 71st Highland Infantry, to Ann Patrick, relict of the late
 Mr. Peter Ross, of Aberdeen.
 At Whitehill, Captain James Donald, late of the 94th Regiment, to Anne, eldest daughter of R. Graham, Esq.
 At Redhall, near Edinburgh, Benjamin Digby, Esq. of Dublin, to Sophia, second daughter of the late Vice Admiral Inglis, of Auchindinny.
 At Allesley, near Coventry, Captain Alinger, of the East India Company's ship Waterloo, to Miss Lloyd, daughter of Richard Lloyd, Esq.
 In Edinburgh, Hugh Douglas Grace, Esq. to Harrietta daughter of the late Lieutenant-Colonel W. Gordon, 83d Regiment.

DEATHS.

At Cheltenham, on Monday last, in the prime of life,
 Marcus Patterson, Esq. of Shepperton, County Gloucester, Captain in the Clare Militia. A Gentleman whose death is very sincerely and deservedly regretted by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.
 At Coolmein, Co. Roscommon very sincerely regretted,
 John Mitchell, Esq. formerly Captain in the Roscommon Militia, and son-in-law of the late James Fitz-Gerald Massy, of Stoneville, in this County, Esq.
 At Kilballyrannan, in this County, Mr. Daniel Reardon, aged 28 years.
 In Run's, on Monday, Mr. Thomas Hehir, Excise Officer.
 At Wilton, County Kilkenny, William Butler, Esq. aged 80, many years back a Captain in the 67th Regiment.
 At Kiel, County Kerry, the relict of Edward Roe, Esq.
 In Dublin, George Joseph Taaffe, Esq. Attorney.
 At Kerdiffestown, County Kildare, aged 84 years, Mrs.
 Wetherall, relict of the late John Wetherall, Esq. of the Custom House, Dublin.
 In Cork, Mary Elizabeth, the infant daughter of M.
 Lambert, Esq. Surgeon 1st. Royal Veteran Battalion, having survived its lamented mother only 27 days.
 In Galway, of fever, Mrs. Davis, wife of Mr. P. Davis.
 In Run's, Mrs. Cotter, relict of Mr. John Cotter.
 At Major Kelly's, of Ballynackin, in the County Tipperary, at the advanced age of 82 years, Mr. Patrick Cooney.
 In Dublin, Mr. Joseph Bigger, Printer.
 At Mountmellick, aged four years, Penrose, son of the late Joshua Peet, Esq. of Waterford.
 Mary, relict of the late Richard Harman, Esq. Surveyor of Revenue Buildings in Ireland.
 At Markethill, Mrs. Pooler, wife of Thomas Pooler, Esq., of the East India Company's service.
 By plunging into a cold bath, Charles John Louis de The-ballier, youngest son of the late Colonel de Theballier, who was killed in St. Domingo in 1794.
 The Rev. Sir John Fag, Bart. of Meystole, and Rector of Chartham, in Kent.
 At Chatham, Mrs. Douglas, widow of the late Captain Douglas, of Newcastle.
 At Muckbeggar, of typhus fever, Mary Jane, daughter of William Watson, Esq. Collector of the Customs, Rye, Sussex.
 At Boulogne, in consequence of a horse running over her,
 Mrs. Charles Locke, daughter of the Duchess of Leinster by her second husband Mr. Ogeltie.
 At Wimborne Minster, Dorsetshire, aged 77 years, Is-Gulliver, Esq.
 At Tattybracke, County Monaghan, aged 90
 Humphry Thompson, Esq.
 At Hope Park End, Jemima Simpson, daughter of Simpson, late Captain in the 27th Foot.