

ROYAL EXCHANGE

ASSURANCE,

Established by Royal Charter and Act of Parliament,

In the Year 1720,

INSURING BUILDINGS, GOODS, AND SHIPS FROM FIRE,

AND ALSO FOR THE

ASSURANCE OF LIVES.

Assured, whose premiums become due on the instant, are respectfully requested to pay the same on or before the 9th October next.

By the yearly payment of a moderate sum out of a person's Income, persons may secure to their wives, children, their indigent relations, or any individuals they may be desirous to aid, an adequate provision against the distress which might be produced by death and the consequent cessation of income contingent on life. Clergy, Revenue Officers, Pensioners, Barrack Masters, Officers, and all Persons enjoying Places for Life, or possible Estates, are by Life Assurance, enabled to secure comfort and respectability for their Families.

Insured for £10,000 to the age of 67 years; and effected by special agreement on persons aged

Medical Certificates, with the many troublesome and expensive documents and reference required at all the other Offices are dispensed with in this: The Public are afforded every facility for effecting Life Assurance; preserving fortunes, and providing for families. Kinds of Manufactories, Buildings, and Goods of every description, Farm-houses and Haggarts Insured at a moderate notice.

A sum as £5,000 can be covered on Mill risks.

Policies can be issued the instant they are ordered.

Persons Insured at this Office do not depend upon any certain fund or contribution, nor are they, or their estates, subject to covenants, or liable by Acts of Parliament, to make good the Losses which may happen—the Capital Stock of the Corporation being an unquestionable security to the Assured: The experience of a Century attests the stability, and shows the unerring wisdom and equity of this Ancient Establishment.

For Rates, and every information respecting Insurances, given gratis by
