DEATHS.

In Mangreestreet, Mr. George Stirling, late of Rouska, in this County. The death of this individual may be attributed to the change of circumstances in which he was placed, being obliged to abandon the place of his nativity, in consequence of the attack made upon his house, and the persecution of his family by the insurgents in the course of the last winter, his mind sunk under the affliction arising from the cruel murder of his brother and son-in-law, which brought on a rapid decline, and closed his mortal career.
In Kinnis, of fever, sincerely lamented, Mrs. Griffith, wife of the Rev. James Griffith.
