SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23.

On Saturday night, William Collins, of Dean-Barney of Coonagh, in this County, returning from the fair of Cappawhite, was murdered near his own house. The perpetrators are not discovered, though the Police are on the alert.
An inquest was held on the body on Sunday, by the Rev. C. P. Coote, Michael Furell, and John D. White, Esqrs.

On Thursday last, the noted John Coffee, charged with carrying off the female witness from the Waterford Coach, and also with abduction, was apprehended by a detachment of the County Limerick Staff, at Abington, and yesterday underwent an examination before Captain Drought, at the Police Office. Coffee is fully committed for trial.

On Wednesday night a notice was posted near the barrack of Newport, Co. Tipperary, signed Captain Kilprocter.

A Requisition is now signing to the Sheriff of the County Tipperary to con-Meeting of his Bailiwick, to take into co-ration the propriety of postponing Parliam-the subject of a commutation of Tithes.

We copy the following from the Freeman's Journal of Thursday:

We have heard with great satisfaction of Rev. John Jebb, D. D. Archdeacon of has been appointed to the vacant Bish-In the selection of this worthy and Divine, political feeling, we are confident have had no influence; to his piety and alone is he indebted for this mark of his M-favour. The Archdeacon is well known published sermons, and his elaborate "Sacred Literature." To him are per-applicable the words of his motto, those excellent Mr. Boyle—"I use the Scriptures as an arsenal to be resorted to only for weapons to defend this party, not for emies, but as a matchless temple, whose to be, to contemplate the beauty, the and the magnificence of the structure, increase my awe, and excite my devotion."
Deity there preached and adored.

The Archdeacon lately preached a sermon on behalf of the children of the Female House, which made a deep impression on numerous auditory. To none would his oration have given more satisfaction, had to witness it, than to the late Most Rev. bishop of Cashel, whose unbounded friend and confidence he enjoyed for many years.

The Bishop of Ferns, Lord Robert ham, is to be translated to Clogher. We the Bishop of Clonfert is to be transferred to Ferns, in which case Doctor Jebb will be translated to Clonfert.

A Cork paper states, that the Rev.
St. Lawrence, son to the Lord Bishop of Cork, is appointed to the Archdeaconry of Oliver St. John, Esq. is appointed Sheriff at Newfoundland, and Josiah Blackburne, Hooper, Stephen Lawler, and Samuel Esqrs. Justices of the Peace.

Doctor Poole is elected a member of the Common Council of Waterford, vice Kearney, Esq. resigned.

A second coach is shortly to start between Cork and Killarney.

On Thursday, John Hutchinson, and Vaughan, were received into the Court of Mary—the former having in a fit fallen from a horse, and had his hand severely burnt, the latter having broke her thigh by a fall from a horse at Mungret near this City.

On Wednesday night, the Rev. Mr.
Curate of Pennywell Chapel, sent Watson a horse pistol, which had been delivered him.

The Rev. William D. Hoare, Trasurer of the Lying-in-Hospital, acknowledge received Forty Pounds, sterl. from the estate of the late Mrs. Anne Banks, by the Daniel Gabbett, Esq. for the use of the table Institution.
