thanks.

Saturday, Alderman W... post-paid letter from the County Tipp... a Pound Note, which, by desire of the Lady, has been laid out for a dinner to-morrow for the widows in the Corporation Alms-House.

Alderman Watson has thankfully to acknowledge the receipt as follows, for making glad the hearts of 386 poor inmates of the House of Industry, on Christmas Day, viz.:—The Right Worshipful D. F. G. Mahony, Esq. Mayor, 10s.; Mr. Homan, of William-steet, a side of prime mutton; a quarter of beef from the Lord Bishop of Limerick; from W. R. 6s.; and this evening from a Gentleman, One Pound.

Twenty Shillings, fine inposed by the Mayor last week for breach of cotract, and to which Mr. E. was entitled, has been handed to his Worship, and is thus appied:—Ten Shillings to a peculiarly distressed widow, Mrs. M., and 10s. towards helping the christmas Dinner for the Poor-House.

The Treasurer of the Mndicity acknowledges the receipt of One Poun from the Hon. Mrs. Green, towards a Christmas Dinner for the poor in that Asylum.

The Aanual Sermon i aid of St. George's Alms-House is to be prached in St. George's Church on Sunday next. The support hitherto afforded to this Institutio, warrants our hope that this appeal will not e in vain. In this house twelve aged wome are lodged, provided with beds, fuel, and a eekly stipend of two shillings each. Mr. Homan of William-street has kindly supplied thes poor creatures with a side of mutton for their Christmas dinner.

The newly-erected Organ in John's Church will be in full opration o-morrow.

The Ash-hill Fox-hounds having been very successful in drawing the Covers on Mr. Evan's Miltown-Castl Estates, will shake the famous Bob-tailed Fox between Kilmallock and Clougher-hil, on St. Stephen's-Day, at eleven o'clock precely.
