

FILE ARTIST.
who with every action of real life,
of the Company, Specimens of superior to the best Specimens of the were destitute of motion, it
; but when, with the ease and ated youth, it unites the power imitations of Nature, as almost to ogy—"when Figures, forged out Prometheus, started into life;"
ible appears, it is equalled, if not ul Mechanism of this Figure,

THE SPANIARD,
Animated Dancer,
regulated by Music, to which he ical and scientific exactness.
NECROMANCER,
ominated the British Enchanter;
concerning the Art of these wonder ative Groves of Druidical Oak, ded from every bough, could go alities of this self acting Pheno-

THE GOLD SERPENT.
of Nature, whose multiplicity of prising Mechanical Combination, y motion and evolution natural to

THE MURRIAN MOUSE,
surprises every beholder by its apparent motion; running in every direction a living one.

THE OPTICIAN LIZARD,
up, composed of Fine Gold, set with ce of Mechanism, from the exact of that Animal.

THE ARANEA,
ce of Mechanism is truly wonder-le, and so perfect an Imitation of y its motions, to deceive the Spec-

THE CHIRPING BIRD,
rb Gold Box, warbles the melodious concealment in the Box. The effect ism may be said, without exaggera-and for delicacy of workmanship

we added a recreation in the
THE ART OF OPTICS.
ch has been honoured with characters inction in England. And although this invention have appeared in the Britain, the Inventor conscious of iginal, has no hesitation in flattering et with that protection and support ty and discernment of a Limerick

THE END OF WHICH,
will appear as in a Rendezvous, and rdinary Performance called the
THE DANCE OF WITCHES.

is a brief description:—A grotesque sorcerers anniversary, or a Dance of evolutions, gambols, dances, and hundreds of fancy formed figures, proecial spectacles, &c. &c.

with a series of Mechanical & Optical
THE OPTIC WORKS.

opening at Seven o'Clock, when the
be repeatedly Exhibited until Nine, ise for the Optical Delusions, Dance Works.
day, Wednesday, and Friday in each will open at One o'Clock, M. D. for h Persons as cannot attend in the

each—Children under ten years of age, well aired with Fires.

Limerick, February 23, 1833.

SUNDAY.

The Lady of Christopher Moriarty, Esq. of Wellington-Lodge, County Dublin, of a daughter.
At Busby Park, the Lady of Sir Robert Shaw, Bart.
M. P. of a daughter.
In London, Lady Jane Peel, of a son.
At Plymouth, the Lady of Lieut. Sullivan, Royal Navy, of a daughter.
In London, the Hon. Mr. Dundas, of a son.
At Clifton, Bedfordshire, the Lady of the Rev. D. I.
Oliver, Jan. of a daughter.
At Cambridge, the Lady of Sir J. Murtloch, Kt. Commissioner of Excise in Ireland, of a son.
At the Hon. Mrs. Dillon's, at Brussels, the Duchess De Croy, (widow of the Duke,) of a son.
At Lord Sidmouth's, the Lady of the Hon. W. Addington, of a son.

The wife of Benjamin Binfield, of Farnham, labourer, was safely delivered on the 16th November, of a female child, which lived two days only; on the 14th January, she was delivered of a male child, which, with the mother, is likely to do well.

MARRIAGES.

In Dublin, Charles Brackers De Hugo, Captain-Lieut. in the 4th Regiment of the Royal Guards, in the French service, to Elizabeth Jane, youngest daughter of the late T.
Blakeney, Esq. of Abbert, Co. Galway.

Rev. Richard H. D'Olier, to Charlotte, second daughter of the late George Lennon, Esq. of Drumvasary, in the County Westmeath.

Michael R. Plunkett, Esq. of Cloonshanville, County
Roscommon, to Mary, eldest daughter of H. Cheevers, Esq. of Killian House, Co. Galway.

The Rev. William Wogan Baynes, of Week St. Mary, Cornwall, to Anne, only child of Major-General Henry Conran, Lieut.-Governor and Commander-in-Chief of his Majesty's Forces in the island of Jamaica, &c.

Lieut. Young, R. A. to Charlotte, daughter of Captain
J. Nash, R. N. Torpoint.

Andrew Lawson, Esq. of Aldborough Lodge, Yorkshire, to Marianne Anna Maria, eldest daughter of T. S. Good, Esq. M. P. for Suffolk.

Captain W. G. Roberts, R. N. to Sophia Frances, eldest daughter of the late W. Wyndham, of Dinton, Wilts.

Mr. Nelson Walker, son of Mr. Kenneth Walker, merchant, of Montreal, Lower Canada, to Mary Ann, eldest daughter of the late Mr. William Carter, of St. Olave's, Southwark.

DEATHS.

On Tuesday morning, in Broad-street, at an advanced age, sincerely regretted, Mr. Patrick Carey, for many years a merchant in this City.

On the 12th inst. at her house in Lower Berkeley-street, London, and at an advanced age, Dorothea, relict of the late James Lawlor, Esq. The friends who knew her best, will regret her most—to those who enjoyed not the privilege of her acquaintance, the highest panegyric would fail to convey an adequate idea of her inestimable worth.

In Cork, aged 80, Mrs. Langley, relict of the late Roger Langley, Esq. of Fort Lewis, Co. Cork.

The Rev. Mr. Keane, P. P. of Cabriog, Co. Cork.
The Rev. Florence O'Crowley, P. P. of Ballinadee.

In Dublin, Mrs. M'Canu, wife of Mr. Andrew M'Canu, Ann, eldest daughter of Edward Dalton, Esq. of Auburn Cottage, Malahide, Co. Dublin.

Near Downpatrick, Mrs. Heard, relict of John P. Heard, Esq. of Hettyville, near Kinsale.

At Sarsfield Court, Mary, the wife of R. O'Connor, Esq.
At Fairfield, near Wexford, Miss O'Toole, sister of Colonel O'Toole.

At Trim, Co. Meath, W. Carshaw, Esq. of Fosterstown.
At Ballymena, Surgeon William O'Rawe.

At Dacca, in the East Indies, Lieut. and Adjutant Charles Boyd, of the 13th Native Infantry, youngest son of the late James Boyd, Esq. of Rosslare, Co. Wexford.

At Dawlish, John Schank, Esq. Admiral of the Blue.
At Devizes, Mrs. Jane Whittington, daughter of the late Colonel Martin, of Bath.

At Mill Hill, Musselburgh, Mrs. Lindesay, widow of Lieut. Colonel John Lindesay, 53d Regiment.

John Forbes, Esq. late Collector of his Majesty's Customs for the Colony of Demerara.

Sir J. Newbolt, of Portwood House, Haats; he had eaten a hearty dinner the day on which he died, and the awful event occurred as they were taking him up stairs at night.