ST. GEORGE'S DAY SCHOOL.
 THE ANNUAL SERMON is aid of the Funds of this Institution, is to be Preached in ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH, on SUNDAY, 9th MARCH, by the Rev. WILLIAM D. HOARE.

In this School, upwards of One Hundred Children, Boys and Girls, are Educated, and as opportunities offer their well. The Trustees of this School publicly avow their full persuasion that Education not forwarded on Christian Principles is inadequate to resist the various temptations to evil of every kind to which immund stands exposed, and therefore they put the authorized version of the Scriptures into the hands of these Children, which includes a "Honour all Men, Love the Brotherhood, Fear God, Honour the King."
 The Funds of this Institution are not only exhausted, but a considerable debt is due to the Treasurer, and on the amount of the collection made this annually chiefly depends the upholding of this most invaluable Institution.
 Donations from those who cannot attend the Sermon will be thankfully received by the Trustees, and by the Rev.
 WILLIAM D. HOARE, Treasurer.

Limerick, March 8th, 1823.

A T Meeting of the Resident Gentlemen of the Parish of Brusse and its Vicinity, held on THURSDAY, the 6th of MARCH, 1823.—It was unanimously Resolved that the following Address be presented to HENRY HARDING, Esq.
 of Sir. of Harding-Grove.

DEAR SIR—Having with much regret been informed that you have thought it advisable to send in your resignation of the Commission of the Peace for this County to the Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, we cannot permit you to retire from that situation which you have held so honorably to any kind being exposed for such Shops, Stall's, Stand's, or Shambles; and deterring Persons from playing at any Sports or Games near the Streets or Public ways, or at Gambling Houses. And as due regularity can only be had by the joint assistance of the well-disposed to good order and decorum, the Mayor and other Magistrates trust that the Public will not be deficient in affording their aid and exertions towards the accomplishment of this desirable object.
