sto a place of Religious Worship, and thus to deprive the habilitatis for even of a Theetre. Resolved.—That we are clearly of opinion, that this is either a fit to prope situation for a giv place of Religious Yorship, and that the 'poposed Exatylishment must be a great econvenience to all 0 neighbourhood, and particularly to is: Club.

Resolved.—That we have begard with much surprise, that have Gentlemen have relates to accept of a liberal offer made by a few thorizonta, writh a new to avoid ultigation, and wishing for the respect, this of this City, to preserve a Theater therein?

Dieatre therein.

Resolved—That if appears to us that a much better sitution for a place of Religious Vership, subject to much less fround Rent, could be easily obtained; and that therefore, be persisting in this Scire, against the almost manimous wish of the Citizens of Limerick, of every religious persuaion, evinces any thing but a disposition to accommodate the public on the part of those Gentlemen.

Resolved-That our Committee be bereby authorised and equested, by every legal means in their power, to resist any incroachment upon their premises, which may in the slightest legree annoy or inconsenience this Club.

Resolved-That when we consider the liberality of the especiable Inhabitants of this City, in subscribing to all the aritable Establishments therein, we feel the more surprisand regret at this want of deference to public feeling on the part of those Gentlemen.
