

increased vigilance and activity. The one offender in the one quarter, and the other prisoners now about to be tried in the other quarter, operate as a useful example in pre-peace of those districts, and in repelling future acts of the insurgents.

erjeant remarked that justice will inevitably, later overtake those disturbers of the public peace, lawless acts meet with deserved punishment, and warned the peasantry that they were playing a desine in which they would be eventually the losers, of the law would put down their midnight praed had frequently warned them, both here and in e, where the sitting of the Court was numerously by the country people, and he begged of them now their relatives and friends that the Magistrates of y would continue to act with energy and vigor, and Government would support them until their lawless on was stopped. He impressed upon the Police es particularly, the necessity of being active and g in patrolling their respective neighbourhoods, ng up all suspicious persons.

course of his address the learned Serjeant remarked, part of the County Clare, adjoining the North Li- this City. were in such a disturbed state, that the tes of the County Clare who resided in the Barony s, had applied to the Lord Lieutenant, to have the is of the Insurrection Act extended to the neighl Ryan was put to the bar, charged with being om his proper place of abode, near Ballinacurra, on t of the 27th January last, and also for refusing to p arms and ammunition.

am Thackberry, policeman, sworn, is a sub-con- tioned at Hospital, knows the prisoner; was pris- on the night of the 27th January last; searched the prisoner's Grand father, where prisoner resides, ad him absent; prisoner's name was on the door; m afterwards on searching at the house of a man radey, about a quarter of a mile from his Grandfael Wilkinson, Policeman, sworn.—Knows the pri- searched the house of Grady; found him there; pri- s concealed between two beds, and two young lying over him; drew him out in his shirt; asked he any arms; said he had none; took him into ard Wynne, Sub-Constable of Police, sworn.—Ex- prisoner's cloaths; found in his breeches pocket a ball rolled up in a piece of paper, and under that paper containing powder, which prisoner had denied ; on being questioned as to the powder and ball, he hat he found them in a ditch.

Dumas, Chief Constable of the Barony of Small , sworn.—Was present when prisoner was taken; had out to search; had obtained information that prisoner ns; the ammunition was got while witness was ex- g another part of the house.

e the case closed, and the Bench having retired to ate, returned in a short time, and Serjeant Torrens eed the determination of the Court as to the prisoner's of which the assembled Magistrates had not a doubt. s sentenced to seven years transportation, to be con- forthwith to the Penitentiary, Cork, in the harbour of City the Serjeant stated that Transports were now g to convey him; and his partners in crime, far from ative country.

rick King was put to the bar, charged with being out welling in the village of Doonee, Barony of Coonagh, l times in November and December last.

liam Phillips, Policeman, sworn.—Proved the charge. at prisoner was suspected of being concerned in the r of one Collins.

the defence, Mr. Hugh Lloyd, swore that he knew sooner since a child; knew him to be always peaceable, re a very good character; prisoner and brothers were g for him; heard he was suspected of being concerned ay in November last, in which a man named Collins murdered; believes it was in consequence of such sus- prisoner absented himself from his home; witness's ighbourhood is peaceable.

Court after some deliberation acquitted the prisoner, was discharged from the dock. William O'Brien was charged with being absent from elling on the night of the 13th of March near Bally- a in this county—Acquitted.

Court adjourned to Saturday next—to which day the as apprehended by Major Maxwell, postponed their

DR. F. HAHNEMANN, TO BE CONSULTED ENTIRELY FOR HYSTERIC AND EPILEPSY, GIVES NOTICE,
that, (in case of severity,) he allows, after the performance of the cure, two years' gratuitous, before requiring payment for attendance or medicine.
25, South Anne street, Dublin, March 16.

COMMERCIAL BUILDINGS.
GENERAL MEETING of the Proprietors of the Commercial Buildings, will be held on MONDAY the 25th inst. at the Councils, to proceed at 2 o'clock relatively to the election of a committee of 15 Directors for ensuing year, pursuant to charter party.

By a clause in the Charter, it is fixed that any list on the part, contained either more or less than 15 Names, shall be rejected and deemed void.

ALBION
FIRE & LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
New Bridge-Street, London,
AND
NO. 9, CAVENDISH-ROW, RUTLAND-SQUARE, DUBLIN.
EMPOWERED BY ACT OF PARLIAMENT.
CAPITAL—ONE MILLION.
INSURANCES falling due at Lady-Day, will expire, unless renewed within Fifteen Days from that period; Printed Receipts are now ready for the same at my Office, where the Company's Proposals may be had gratis—and INSURANCES from FIRE and on LIVES effected with the greatest facility and dispatch, on the most moderate terms.

JAMES KELLY,
Notary Public,
AGENT FOR LIMERICK AND ITS VICINITY,
No. 11, Rutland-Street.
Limerick, March 19th, 1823.

EXTENSIVE AUCTION.
TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION, on SATURDAY, the 22d of March, at Bank-place, City of Limerick, a great number of SCOTCH CARTS, with Stationary HAY RAILS, and WHEEL BARROWS, from the Fermoyle Farming Implement Factory.
The Sale will be well worth the attention of the Public.
N. B.—The Carts, &c. &c. can be seen each day until Saturday, at Bank-place, and sold by private Sale in the interim. March 19.

REDUCEMENT.
THE Proprietors of the large Tontine Buildings in George's-Street, called MEADE'S TONTINE, will let from the 25th instant, the Houses at present unset, viz.
those lately occupied by Joseph Gabbett, Esq. Robert Young, Esq. Poole Gabbett, Esq. and James O'Grady, Esq. at the very reduced Rent for each, of EIGHTY-FIVE POUNDS PER ANNUM.
Leases either for 3 Lives or 31 Years will be made at the option of the Tenant.
There cannot be any Concern better situated for a respectable Residence, the air very good, a plot for a garden in the rear, and the Offices most spacious and convenient.
These Houses had been let each at £155 per annum, and at other intermediate Rents to the present reduced offer of £85 per annum—but this is the very lowest rate at which it is determined by the Proprietors to let the Premises.
By application to Mr. DAVID FITZ-GERALD, No. 109, George's-Street, the Concerns can be viewed, and Proposals, in writing, from eligible Tenants, will be laid by him before ROBERT MAUNSELL, Esq. of Bank-Place, the Trustee to the Property.
Limerick, March 19th, 1823.

RATHKEALE.
TO BE LET, from the 25th March inst. for such term as shall be agreed on, the following parts of the Estate of JOHN PIGOTT, Esq. in or adjoining to the town of Rathkeale:—
1st.—The Farm of FORT GEORGE, close to that Town, containing about sixteen acres, most desirably situated on the River Deal.
2d.—A Lot of Building Ground, at the corner of Pound Lane, in the centre of the Town of Rathkeale, known by the name of Power's Tenement.
3d.—That division or part of said Town, called Boherbuy, containing about four acres, with the Houses thereon.
4th.—The Farm opposite Mr. LEAKE'S Demesne, called the Island, lately occupied by Mr. JOSEPH O'LOUGHLIN, containing four acres.
Proposals to be received by Mr. DICKSON, or Mr.
MICHAEL POTTER, Bedford-Row, Limerick, who will forward them to JOHN PIGOTT, Esq.
March 19, 1823.

SHERIFF'S SALE.
COUNTY OF LIMERICK, TO WIT.
I, John Molony, Sheriff, do hereby give notice, that I will sell, by public Auction, at the New Courthouse of said County, on the 31st and Pat. Keating, day of March inst. the Defendants' Defendants. Interest in the Lands of GARRANE, in said County, being for a long term of years. Also the Defendants' Interest in the Lands of GRANGE HILL, of which all persons concerned are to take notice. Dated this 18th day of March, 1823.
GEORGE TUTHILL,
Sheriff of the County Limerick.

IN CHANCERY.
In the Matter of EDWARD WESTROPP, the Mother and Guardian of said Minor, and WILLIAM JONES'S Esq.
South-Mall, Cork; and EDWARD GREEN, Esq. Greenmount, Limerick.—Dated this 12th March, 1823.
The Premises are situate within five miles of Limerick, and consist of a large and very much marked on the outside as such, to Mr. JONATHAN THOMPSON, County Jail, on or before Saturday, the 22d Instant.

Potatoes, per stone, (Cups or Apples.) Old Potatoes to the 1st of August, and New thenceforward.
Cuttings of the best quality, per Ton,
Milk, New and Sour, per Quart,
Straw, Oaten or Barley, per Ton,
Coals, best Liverpool, per Ton,
Soap, White per Cwt.
Candles, mould and dipped, per dozen,
Oil for lamps, Seal or Rape, per Gallon,
Salt per Cwt.
Bread of 3d Flour, per lb. to be delivered in loaves of 2lbs. each.
Any further information may be obtained by application to Mr. THOMPSON, County Jail.
March 12.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.
SAILED.
Hero, Hair, Liverpool, sundries.
Farmer, Davidson, Glasgow, oats.
Jane, Elliott, Poole, pork, &c.
Olive, Nicoll, Glasgow, oats.
Margaretta, Evans, London, Oats.
Wilton, Herring, Liverpool, wheat and oats.
Enterprise, Hunter, Liverpool, wheat.
Anna, Browne, Glasgow, oats.
Jessie, M'Alpin, Sligo, wheat.
EXPORTS.
Wellington, London, 253 tierces beef, 112 barrels pork,
J. and S. Phelps.
Prince of Wales, Liverpool, 842 barrels wheat, 907 do.
oats, 110 do. rapeseed, J. and S. Phelps.
Active, London, 1797 barrels oats, James Cleland.

BIRTHS.
On Saturday last, the Lady of Michael Ryan, Esq. of this City, of a son.
In Dublin, the Lady of L. Blacker, Esq. of a daughter.
In Athlone, the Lady of Richard Handcocke, jun. Esq. of a daughter.
At Buttevant Castle, the Lady of Sir James C. Anderson, Bart. of a son and heir.
In London, the Hon. Mrs. Bland, of a son.
At Bourton Villa, Flux Bourton, the Lady of Colhurst
Bateman, Esq. of a son.

MARRIAGES.
This morning, in the Cathedral, by the Very Rev. the Dean, T. Jervis, Esq. of the Carminers, to Julia, eldest daughter of J. Vereker, Esq. of this City.
In Kilkenny, Frederick Flood Prior, Esq. to Harriet, eldest daughter of the late Doctor Ryan.
In Banagher Church, John Stoyie, Esq. of the 1st Royal Regiment, to Matilda, only child of the late Michael Ross, Esq. of Londonderry.
In London, Captain John Digby Murray, of the Foot Guards, to Miss Cuthbert.
In Dublin, the Rev. Henry Hunt, of Kiltoom, County Roscommon, to Rose Anne, daughter of the late William Robert Adair, of Mount Vernon, County Antrim, Esq.
In Bath, Lieut.-Colonel Steward, of the Dorset Militia, to Louisa, daughter of Edward Morgan, Esq. of Flintshire.
At Colombo, Lieut.-Colonel James Campbell, 45th Foot, to Charlotte Alicia, only child of the late John Howse, Esq.
of the County Wicklow.

DEATHS.
On Monday, at his house, William-street, sincerely lamented by his family and friends, Mr. Grael Hurte.
In Upper William-street, much regretted, Mr. Robert Hunter, Excise Officer.
On Wednesday last, at Newmarket-on-Fergus, sincerely and deservedly lamented by her family and friends, Mrs. M.
Sargent, aged 80 years.
In Dublin, Fownes Disney, Esq. aged 65 years.
Of fever, Stephen Burke, Esq. M. D. of Ower, County
Galway, Physician to the Fever Hospital there.
Suddenly, at Tuam, Quartermaster Finnegan, late of the 23d Light Dragoons.
In Cork, Mr. Denis M'Carthy, and Mr. C. M'Aniff.
In Dublin, aged 88 years, Mary, wife of John Mitchell, Esq. formerly of the Treasury, and sister to the late Charles Gore, Esq. of Gore's-grove, Co. Kilkenny.
William, son of the late Captain Shearman, of Clonmel.
At Ballinrobe, Quartermaster Sadley, Royal Lancours.
At Glandarra, County Wicklow, Christopher Stone
Williams, Esq. one of his Majesty's Counsel at Law.
The Rev. William O'Connor, Vicar of St. Luke's, Dublin.
In Galway, Peter Skerrett, Esq.
John Maher, Esq. of Ballinsloe.
Patrick Blanchfield, Esq. of Grogara, County Kilkenny.
At her father's, Castle-Hyde, County Cork, Miss Hyde, daughter of John Hyde, Esq. M. P. for Youghall.
At Calcutta, Archdeacon Lorine.
In London, Eliza, daughter of Counsellor Wm. Finch.
The widow of General Gale.
In London, the Baron Best, one of his Majesty's Hanoverian Privy Counsellors.
At Sierra Leone, Captain John Grant, Royal Engineers.
At Boulogne, Sir Arthur Forbes.
Ensign Henry Frederick Hurst, late 72d Regiment.
In London, Sir William Huff Gordon, Bart. M. P. for the City of Worcester.

THE MARKETS.
Our Wheat market was but thinly supplied this day, and not much buying; prices much the same as last—Red, 14d.
to 16d; White, 15d. to 17th.—Oats, 9th.—Barley 9th.—