DEATHS.

At Edinburgh, a few days ago, to the deep regret of his friends and acquaintance, James M'Alpine, Esq. of the Firm of Stein, Browne, and Co. of this City.

At Chester House, near Cheltenham, on Friday evening last, Colonel the Hon. Sir Robert Le Poer Trench, K. C. B.
Lieutenant-Colonel of the 74th Regiment, youngest son of the late Lord Clancarty, brother to the present Earl, and to the Lord Archbishop of Tuam. By his sudden removal in the flower of his age, his family and friends have been involved in a deep and afflicting calamity—his country has to mourn over the loss of a most gallant, zealous, and intelligent officer—society a valuable member—the Church a pious, humble, and sincere Christian—and the poor a liberal and kind friend. In the hour of trial he not only experienced that peace of God which passeth understanding, but he also exhibited that true sublimity which the Gospel of the Son of God can alone impart to the expiring Christian. He could say with the Sweet Singer of Israel, "Though I pass through the dark valley of the shadow of death I fear no evil."

In Kiltrush, on Tuesday aged 86, Mr. Daniel Gorman.

On Wednesday, the Rev. Doctor M'Carthy, P. P. of Kilmastulla, Co. Tipperary.

At the Portobello barracks, Dublin, deservedly regretted, Major Walker, of the 5th Dragoon Guards.

Maria, youngest daughter of the late G. Hall, Esq. of Glasson, County Westmeath.

In Capel-street, Dublin, Mr. Peter Graham.

Mr. Thomas Wheatley, sen. of Spittalfield.

At Collon, Rebecca, daughter of Surgeon Murphy, of the Louth Militia.

At Munfin, near Enniscorthy, Mrs. Hutchings, wife of R.
H. Hutchings, Esq. Surveyor of Excise.

At Villa Bank, Christians, daughter of the late Captain William Cooke, 27th Regiment.

The wife of Mr. John Dodd, of Sackville-street, Dublin.

In London, Colonel Richard Doveton.

Lieut. Henry Knox, Grenadier Guards.
