OUNTY CORK ASSIZES.

-Maurice Looby, for stealing eight Mr. Moran, of Clogheen, to be transseven years.

Walsh and Daniel Kirby, for the murtherine Cullinane, near Castlelyons-Kirby being considered insane, has ited-Walsh, his associate, was exe-two o'clock on Monday.

Coghlan, for attacking the house of t Ring, of the North Cork Regiment, the gallant resistance. The witnesses t of the indictment were Mr. Ring, and Miss Ring, and Patrick Fahy, nt. For the defence, Mr. Flynn, a e, was examined, who stated that the as brought before him to be bailed, he was one of several Magistrates bey whom Miss Ring had been repeatedly ne could identify the prisoner, and she ould not. - Acquitted. ture of the attack on Mr. Ring's house nagined by his testimony on this trial, s follows :-

rening of the 17th of March, he was sitting in of his house, in the village of Ballymagooly, Ring and his son; they were after dinner, and make some punch, when they were alarmed by om Miss Ring, who had been in the kitchen, in -" Father, father, here they are." Mr. Ring had started up from their seats at the first alarm, seized two bayonets which were lying on the d into the hall, which was already filled with an , and commenced a desperate and determined them with the bayonets, Mr. Ring at the onset ally bored one of them down, which was returnfired so close, and in the midst of such a crowe, it a matter of wooder that no person was killed. shots was from a blunderbuss, the other from a a slug from the former wounded the elder Mr. forehead. In this furious scuffle Mr. Ring was ked down, or tripped by a stone, and while thus seed down, or tripped by a stone, and write thus edd his son protected, by standing over him, and at the moment by one of the fellows, whom he y stabbed.—Miss Ring, who continued all the terrific scene, had, with great presence of mind, street door, against which she placed berself in ner, that though she could not close it entirely, ce that was opposed to her outside, yet she pre-admittance. Fresh men began then to pour in at or, who dragged out their two comrades that had ed. To this place Mr. Ring now turned his athaving succeeded in driving them out there, and ie door, he returned to the front door where Miss niped her position, leaving little room for admite of the fellows outside had poked in a gun, with n of firing at Mr. Ring, jun. who was with his he seized, putting the muzzle at one side, and I to draw him towards him, which when he had ently close for his purpose, he plunged the bayoit, Mr. Ring sent his daughter up stairs for the The assailants in the meantime collected outside ace of about ten yards from the house, and sevehabitants of the village looking on. Young Mr. goined his father with the arms, they fired two which the party began to retreat, though not to ad appeared as if they were dragging somethin. At a short distance further one of them dropped, ty then began to disperse. They were pursue and young Mr. Ring was disposed to follow them e and on their return they found the body of one e name was Bush—On reaching the house a mesdispatched to Mallow for military, and on their search commenced through the village, in the which the prisoner was taken in his own bouse. bstantially, was the account given by Mr. Ring perate transaction. Being cross-examined by Mr. Connsel for the prisoner, he said he thought there are been less than forty men engaged in the attack. in the house occupied from ten to fifteen minutes,

In the noise occupied from ten to fifteen amoures, be commencement to the time they gave up the light have been about an hour. He was not alarm-bever more cool in his life; the scene was one blave alarmed others, but did not alarm him, nor , nor hisdaughter alarmed; his wife was, a little. not recognise the features of any of those who em are in custody. The present prisoner was in ell of Mallow for ten days without any commiton his daughter saw the prisoner-first, she said she was him, but would not be induced to take a book to swear; but afterwards she swore positively in ations before Colonel Hodder. The prisoner well, near this City, and Patrick Hassett, of Trugh, were hanged at Ennis, for attacking Mr. Doyle's house, in the County Clare. One hundred and sixty-one prisoners still remain in the gaol of Clonmel.

On Saturday last, Patrick Rourke, of Penny-

In consequence of the death of Miss Lloyd. daughter of the respected Assistant Barrister of this County, Counsellor Frederick Holland, is this day to preside at the Quarter Sessions for Civil Bills, which commenced here on Monday. Nine men were yesterday convicted in the Barrister's Court, for a riot at a fair, and sentenced to Six Months imprisonment. The Assistant-Barrister will not hold the Sessions for Civil Bills at Kilrush, County Clare. until Friday next. In addition to the Magistrates stated in our last, to have attended the Sessions under the Insurrection Act at Sixmilebridge, the following were on the Bench-Richard Barelay, Captain Michael Martin, Rev. Michael Fitzgerald, and Captain Connop. The persons taken up near Ball's house, the night on which it was burned, underwent a strict examination, at the petty Sessions of Adare, Lord Adare in the Chair, when the Magistrates discharged them, their presence being satisfactorily accounted for. Serjeant Moore, and the party of the 42d Highlanders, at Cunnigar, were most active in suppressing the fire which took place in the farm-houses near their station. They also secured the persons found on the lands, whom the Serjeant handed over to the City Police.

Mr. Balmer, Chief Constable for the barony of Clanwilliam, has this day lodged in the Custom-House, 18 stand of arms, 3 bayonets, and some powder. The greater part of the arms were surrendered to him in the baronies of Coonagh, Owneybeg and Clanwilliam.

Mr. Secretary Goulburne left Dublin on Saturday morning for London. He has had several conferences with the most distinguished Ecclesiastics of this country, on the new Tithe

The House of Commons have come to a series of Resolutions, the object of which is the gradual and final repeal of the Union Daties. Duties upon Silk, in its different modifications, are to determine in 1826-upon Calicoes and Muslins in 1829 - upon Apparel, and what is called Old Drapery, that is to say Cloaths, &c. at the same time. There is a graduated scale of decrease, which is intended to break the fall of the Interests on their side the Channel, and allow the Parties time to get out of their trade, or to accommodate their transactions to the new order of things.

Sunday last, a Deputation from the Directors of the Chamber of Commerce proceeded hence to have an interview with Government and the Post-Masters General, on the subject of the contract of the Mail between this City and the Metropolis. The contract is not yet declaredthe Candidates are Mr. Bourne and Mr. Brotherton, of Liverpool. It is intended by the new contract that the Coach shall be accelerated by two hours-to arrive here at ten forenoon, and dispatched at four in the afternoon.

Since writing the above we are informed that the contract has been declared for Mr. Bourne. The Day Coach, which commenced running by the accelerated plan in one day from Dublin, arrived here at half-past nine on Saturday, and continues to be here at that early hour each Monday last the Mayor held a Registry of Freeholds in the City Court-sixty-six were registered.

Yesterday morning, the 81th Regiment left Cork, to occupy the quarters of the 52d Light NOTICE.

THE SALE OF WINTER GOODS,

MERETOFORE ADVERTISED, Will positively close this Month, at the WEST OF ENGLAND.

WOOLLEN AND MANCHESTER COMMISSION WAREHOUSE 10. CHARLOTTE'S-QUAY.

from

from

T.

Wan

of F

and :

as he

ward

Cons

Dye

Flun

at P

but resi

rick

IM

Wi

Ho

51

ing

ace

int

HIS Sale, which comprises the best manufactured Goods, will be well worth the attention of the Public.

PRIME BLACK AND BLUE SAXONY CLOTHS, Sold within the last Month at 28s, are now selling at 24s. Ditto, BEST OLIVE AND OTHER SHADES, Sold within the last Month at 22s. 9d. are now selling at 18s.

Prime CORONATION, ANGLESEA, and DRAB
CASSIMERES, now selling at 9s.

The Proprietor having this week had a communication from the Manufacturer in England, saying that the Summe from the Manufacturer in England, saying that the Samme-Supply will be ready for delivery in a few weeks, has in-structed the Goodson hands to be sold 15 per cent, under their original cost—acting under such instructions, the entire Stock has been reduced proportionable to the above

The Proprietor thinks it necessary to observe, those Cloths are engaged perfectly sound and of the most lasting colour; his Establishment not being a fransitory one, i pledged to the Public as security for any Goods purchased

N. B .- The lowest selling price being marked on each Article precludes the possibility of keeping Accounts. R. M.MAHON, Proprietor. Limerick, April 9th, 1828.

NOTICE.

THE AUCTION AT CARNELLY, Heretofore Advertised for the 15th of April, THE 12th MAY NEXT.

9th April, 1823. TO BE SOLD. AT THE CANAL, LIMERICK,

AT THE CANALA AND THE OF THE ESST ASI TIMBER, FIT FOR COACH MAKERS COOPERS ON ANY USE, AND SALLY HAVER, 614 April, 1823.

TO BE LET. FOR SUCH TERM AS MAY BE AGREED ON, (OR THE INTEREST SOLD.)

BALLYDONOGHUE LODGE, With a small Demesne of 13 or 14 Acres of CHOICE LAND, Situated on the River Shannon between Glin and Tarbert.

Proposals to be made to Dr. CHURCH, Gurtanard, Listowel. April 9, 1823. LIBERTIES OF LIMERICK.

TO BE LET, FOR TWENTY-ONE YEARS AND A CONCURRENT LIFE. From the First Day of May next,

THE LANDS OF KNOCKBRIEN.

In the County of Limerick, as held by Robert Cripps, Esq.

CARRIGMARTIN, BALLYEGARTHA, COOLREAGH,

AS HELD BY HIM AND HIS UNDER TENANTS, CONTAINING

Two Hundred and Thirty Acres, LORD VISCOUNT GORT. Preposals, in writing, to be addressed Lord GORT, and left at the Office of Messrs. PIERCY, near the Commercial Buildings, Limerick April 6th, 1823.