Yesterday morning, at Grove-field, Crumliu-road, Mr. James Farrell, while eating his break-fast, fell from his chair and instantaneously expired. This gentleman had been formerly universally known, and esteemed, as one of the most eminent Salesmasters of Smithfield. The Lord Lieutenant has transmitted a respite in behalf of Francis Elliott, convicted at the last County of Antrim Assizes, of having attempted the life of Mr. Adam Bowles, by throwing vitriol and firing at him.

HORRID OUTRAGE IN THE COUNTY OF KARRY.
Yesterdale, near Listowel, with a most extensive range of out-offices, con string. Three Stables, Coach-house, Cow-house, Barn, Potatoe-house, and Cider-house, with two Farm-houses on the Demessne, were discovered to be on Fire, when much valuable properly was consumed, with two Horses and a Cow, and several others dreadfully scorched. A large quantity of Potatoes, Oals, scorched. A large quantity of Potatoes, Oats, five Carts, and many other articles of husbandry were also consumed—the dwelling house was with great exertion saved from sharing the fate with great exertion saved from sharing the late of the Offices. Gracious God! when such a family as the Raymonds, respected and remarka-ble for their hospitality, benovelence and charity for the distressed, are, in their absence in Eng-land, to be selected as the victims of outrage and destruction of property—who can reckon for one night to escape the alarming system now for one night to escape the alarming system now so prevalent, and until now totally unknown in that country, where hospitality and friendly feeling were hitherto congenial to the men of Kerry?

Since writing the above we have received the following from our Newcastle Correspondent:

6 On Thugsday night, some of those daring raffians whose nightly depredations reflect such disagrace upon their country, set fire to the out-offices of Riversdale house, the property of Mrs. Raymond, which raged with such rapidity that in a short time the whole beautiful and extensive concern was, with the exception of the dwelling-house alone, consumed to ashes, and four valuable horses, several cows, a large quanton.

"On Captain Crotty, of the 39th Regiment, stationed at Abbeyfeale, being apprised of the fire by one of his patrole, he instantly repaired to the spot, with a strong guard, who assisted in saving some effects."

not complying with Captain Rocks's regulations On Wednesday night, the Police stationel at Newbridge, in this County, apprehended, while on patrole, a man named O'Neill, who was absent from his residence, and on searching his person, found a new bullet-mould. This circumstance is demonstrative that the evil intertions of the lower orders are not extinguished, as they well know the consequences of retaining such articles in their possession. The High Sheriil of the County Lors Wilman Worth Newenham, Esq. has received a communication from Government, intimating a wish that he should attend in person at the execution of Ilickie, on the 17th iust. at Carker, for the burning of Mr. Norrott's house. Every thing should and will be done, to render the awful example as impressive as possible.

The account taken from a Galway Paper, of Mr. Baron Smith's being taken suddenly ill, and his place supplied by Mr. Serjeant Lefroy, we are glad to find is incorrect. The Baron, however, was delicate during the whole Circuit.
