DEATHS.

On Sunday last, at his noble's house in Brunswick-street, aged 15 years, Master John Boyer.
 At his seat, Overlake, Co. Galway, on Wednesday, aged 80 years, Walter Lambert, Esq. His kind, affectionate, and truly gentlemanlike manners endeared him to all his acquaintance; but it was only by those who knew him well, that his merits could be justly appreciated.
 A few days ago, of 85 years of age, George Clark, at the advanced age of 109 years, Mr. Edward Byrne, formerly an eminent attorney, he retained his faculties to the last—his life still surprised him, and he is in his 103d year, to whom his wife married nearly eighty—his present her faculties, with the exception of sight.

Suddenly, in Dublin, Mr. John Water, grocer, in St. George's, on Monday, on his way to Clonsilla from Dublin, Francis Mandeville Power, Esq. late of Ballycroy, County Tipperary.

At Bray, Richard Hetherington, Esq.
 In Monasterague, James, fifth daughter of John Curdery, Esq. of this town.

In Dublin, the relict of Doctor Skelton, of Dringdale, who is with painful regret we announce the death of William Vandeleur, Esq. Lieut. Colonel in the 11th Regiment of Infantry, who expired shortly after his landing in London from Caylen. His illness, which was strong at the time, had lasted 42 years in the 17th, and was various years absent from his Regiment, serving in Jamaica, America, and Caylen. He was married to a daughter of Colonel Ansell, of the Roscommon Militia, and has left a wife and six children, daughter to deplore his loss.
